Jeanine M. (Franklin) Trotter

1938-2021 • Island City

Jeanine Marie Trotter, 82, of Island City, died Jan. 18 at a care facility in Walla Walla, Washington. Due to COVID-19, a private service will be held.

Jeanine was born Dec. 25, 1938, in Green River, Wyoming, to Eugene and Edna Mae Franklin. She joined older brother Jim. Jeanine's family moved to Oregon in 1941.

During her sophomore year at La Grande High School, Jeanine spotted classmate Thomas Trotter for the first time and she told her friend she would marry him one day. She was right. The pair married the summer following their 1957 graduation and they celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary on Aug. 17, 2020. Tom and Jeanine welcomed their first son, Jeffrey, in 1959, and in 1961 they welcomed their second son, David. In 1982 David was killed in a car accident in Colorado.

Jeanine loved spending time outdoors, mainly hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, skiing and camping. Tom and Jeanine enjoyed traveling, especially to Alaska, Arizona and Nevada. Jeanine's hobbies later included golfing, playing cards, gardening and going to every garage sale available to her. Anyone who knew Jeanine knew of her love for Fenton glassware and how she cherished each piece in her extensive collection. She also loved to cheer on the local high school sports teams, and she and Tom rarely missed a game.

Tom and Jeanine were blessed with three granddaughters. Since Jeanine had sons, life with little girls was new to her. She loved to buy the girls Barbies, porcelain dolls and outfits for every occasion. She even asked the girls' mom to teach her how to fix their hair. Jeanine taught her granddaughters to love Pepsi with chocolate syrup, golf course popcorn and butterscotch pudding cups. She tickled their backs, taught them how to play cards and let them drive the golf cart.

Tom and Jeanine spoiled their grandchildren with trips to the Oregon Coast, Silverwood Theme Park, Wallowa Lake and Yellowstone. They never missed a game, concert, birthday or holiday. Jeanine was there for every event, no matter how small, in her granddaughters' lives. She was the definition of a dedicated grandmother and she is already so missed by her girls.

Jeanine was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She also valued the community she found at the La Grande Country Club. She was quite social and she cared very deeply for her friends. She will be missed by her beloved Yorkie, Itsy.

Surviving relatives include her husband, Tom; son and daughter-in-law, Jeff and Joelle; three granddaughters; and two great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her son, David.

Velda (Carbine) Klein

1924-2021 • La Grande

Velda Klein, 96, of La Grande, died Jan. 25 at her residence.

A funeral service will be livestreamed Feb. 5 beginning at 10 a.m. To view the service, go to www.lovelandfuneralchapel.com and click on the "Funeral Videos" button near the bottom of the home page just before 10 a.m.

Velda was born July 12, 1924, in a farmhouse in Fruitdale to Francis and Zepha Carbine and lived her entire life in the Grande Ronde Valley. In 1942, she graduated from La Grande High School, where she was a member of the choir and orchestra. She attended what is now Eastern Oregon University to study accounting.

Velda's love of singing resulted in her performing at many weddings and other events in the valley until she damaged her voice by performing with a cold. Prior to getting married, she worked for the Eastern Oregon Review, Pacific Produce, Falk's Department Store, Union County Sheriff's Office and Union County tax office.

Velda married James "Jim" Edward Klein on New Year's Day 1945, and they moved to Fruitdale to become farmers. After being a farmer's wife and corralling two kids, pigs, chickens, horses, cows and a garden, she helped her husband convert the wheat field into the Flying K Trailer Ranch and became bookkeeper for the business.

Velda was able to semi-retire and became a snowbird traveling all over the Southwest. Exposure to Native American jewelry and flea markets/auctions began a second business: Jada 'tiques.

When her husband died in the early 1990s, she returned to the Grande Ronde Valley to watch her grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren grow up.

As a young mother, Velda was active in 4-H, Cub Scouts and PTA. She joined the Soroptomists and became a lifetime member in 1986.

In 1952, she joined Beta Sigma Phi and served for 50-plus years, becoming a lifetime member. She was awarded the Order of the Rose for her own life of the ideals of Beta Sigma Phi. In 1997, she received her amateur radio operator license and became very active with the local ham operators. She also was active with the Grand Ronde Muzzleloader black powder club.

Surviving relatives include her son and daughter-in-law, E. H. "Duke" and Kate Klein of Prineville, and five grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 48 years, James "Jim" Edward Klein; daughter, Sandi Benson; brothers and sisters-in-law, Grant and Ione Struck and Tom and Alice Struck; and sisters and brothers-in-law, Alice and Bob Spencer and Fanny and Howard Skeen.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.lovelandfuneralchapel.com.
