Craig Ferguson

8:31 p.m. on CBS B Positive

Drew and Gina (Thomas Middleditch, Annaleigh Ashford) start pondering what the future may hold for them after Jerry (recurring guest star David Anthony Higgins), one of the others in Drew's "dialysis club," unexpectedly gets a call notifying him that he will soon get a new kidney in a new episode called "B Negative." Sara Rue, Kether Donohue, Briga Heelan and Linda Lavin also are featured.

Mom

Bonnie (Allison Janney) surprises even herself when she scores a smashing success with a line of mocktails she comes up with for Adam's (William Fichtner) bar in the new episode "Whip-Its and Emotionally Attuned Babies." Meanwhile, Jill (Jaime Pressly) finds herself strangely attracted to Bonnie's therapist, Trevor (recurring guest star Rainn Wilson). Tyne Daly also guest stars; Mimi Kennedy, Kristen Johnston and Beth Hall also are featured.

10 p.m. on ABC The Hustler

This diabolically entertaining and unconventional game — in which a five-member team tries to answer trivia questions while guessing which player is secretly a ringer who has been given the questions in advance — closes out its first season with a finale called "A Little Bit of Finger Pointing." Broadway and chocolate chip cookies with cheddar cheese are among the hints to this week's Hustler's identity. Craig Ferguson is the host.

10:31 p.m. on USA She's the Boss

This amusing new "docu-comedy" revolves around the family life of jet-setting entrepreneur Nicole Walters, who runs a multimillion-dollar marketing empire while her husband Josh, a full partner in raising their three adopted daughters, is a stay-athome lawyer. Completing the household is Eddie Bernardez, Nicole's over-the-top executive assistant and BFF. The series premiere, "Butler With Benefits," finds Nicole stressing out about one of her daughters going to college and Eddie learning how to be more professional.
