tonight's best

Danielle Savre

8 p.m. on ABC Station 19

This action drama returns from an agonizingly long hiatus (at least for its fans) with "Train in Vain," a crossover event with sister show "Grey's Anatomy." As the action resumes, Drs. Carina and DeLuca (Stefania Spampinato, Giacomo Gianniotti) are on the trail of Opal (guest star Stephanie Kurtzuba), who is suspected of sex trafficking. Elsewhere, Maya (Danielle Savre) leaves Andy (Jaina Lee Ortiz) in charge of the yearly inspection, while Vic and Dean (Barrett Doss, Okieriete Onaodowan) struggle to cope with the fallout from Dean's arrest. Boris Kodjoe also stars.

8 p.m. on FREE grown-ish

Zoey (Yara Shahidi) continues to wrestle with the ambiguous status of her relationship with Aaron (Trevor Jackson) in the new episode "All in Love Is Fair." Meanwhile, Sky and Jazz (Halle and Chloe Bailey) return from the Olympic trials but struggle to say goodbye. Elsewhere, Jillian (Ryan Destiny) decides to continue working on her documentary in Tokyo.

9:30 p.m. on CBS The Unicorn

Ben (Omar Miller) is nervous about undergoing a colonoscopy, so in a show of solidarity, Wade and Forrest (Walton Goggins, Rob Corddry) schedule appointments for the same procedure at the same time in the new episode "Out With the Old." Meanwhile, Michelle (Maya Lynne Robinson) is determined not to get involved in her sister Meg's (Nicole Byer in her recurring guest role) boyfriend drama, but Delia (Michaela Watkins) inadvertently gets sucked into the mess herself.

10:01 p.m. on ABC A Million Little Things

As the COVID-19 pandemic spreads more widely across the United States, the city of Boston goes into lockdown, threatening the fate of Rome's (Romany Malco) movie, while Maggie (Allison Miller) is forced to come home from Oxford in the new episode "Non-essential." With area hospitals maxed out by coronavirus patients, Eddie's (David Giuntoli) back surgery is canceled, driving him to desperate measures to manage his severe pain. Chris Geere, Nikiva Dionne and Terry Chen guest star.
