Tiffany Haddish

8 p.m. on CBS Kids Say the Darndest Things

A year after ABC canceled this reboot of a vintage kid-centric series, Tiffany Haddish returns to host this CBS revival, which will air in a new half-hour format. One thing that definitely isn't changing: Haddish's delightful chemistry with her young guests who are even more willing than ever to share their unvarnished opinions to Haddish, since the COVID-19 pandemic meant jettisoning the studio audience that was part of the older formats.

8 p.m. on CW Kung Fu

An officer-involved shooting in Chinatown leaves the Asian community stunned in the new episode "Sanctuary." Jin and Mei-Li (Tzi Ma, Kheng Hua Tan) are forced to relive a past traumatic experience, while Henry and Nicky (Eddie Liu, Olivia Liang) are startled by what they discover about the weapons. Shannon Dang, Jon Prasida and Gavin Stenhouse also star.

9 p.m. on PBS Human: The World Within

This new docuseries explores the science behind how the human body works and how the body's many systems function. The premiere, "Birth," takes a look at how bodies create and sustain new life, as perceived through the eyes of parents preparing to welcome a child. The issue of what is fundamental and unique about the birth experience also is examined. Jad Adumrad provides the narration.

9 p.m. on CBS SEAL Team

In a new episode called "Do No Harm," the Bravo team is ordered to bring a defecting Boko Haram lieutenant into custody, but the mission goes badly off the rails when the target gets attacked; Elsewhere, Sonny (A.J. Buckley) drops the ball as Bravo's representative on the USS Keating, and the entire team pays the price as a consequence. David Boreanaz and Max Thieriot also star.
