Charmed

Now airing in a new Friday time period, this supernatural reboot continues its third season with "Witchful Thinking," a new episode that finds the Charmed Ones (Melonie Diaz, Madeleine Mantock, Sarah Jeffery) embarking on a quest. They're seeking an ancient relic that they hope will help them cure their magical allergy, but they're unprepared for the outcome. Poppy Drayton and Rupert Evans also star.

8:30 p.m. on HGTV
Happily Wherever

This new house-hunting series focuses on couples who are lucky enough to be able to work remotely from any location that includes reliable broadband access. In each episode, the prospective clients explore what their budget would permit them to buy in their current city, compared to smaller markets in vastly different parts of the country. Armed with that info, they then decide whether they want to stay put or relocate to a new city where they can get more "home" for their dollar.

9 p.m. on CBS
Magnum P.I.

This detective show reboot wraps up its third season with "Bloodline," with Magnum and Higgins (Jay Hernandez, Perdita Weeks) taking on a stalking case involving a girl and a man with experience in espionage. On a more personal note, Ethan (guest star Jay Ali) invites Higgins to join him on a trip for Doctors Without Borders, just as Magnum has started to warm up to other possibilities with his partner. Zachary Knighton and Stephen Hill also star. CBS recently greenlit Season 4 of this series.

9 p.m. on CW
Dynasty

As Season 4 opens with "That Unfortunate Dinner," Fallon and Liam (Elizabeth Gillies, Adam Huber) are planning their nuptials, with some decidedly unsolicited input from mother-of-the-bride Alexis (Elaine Hendrix). Later, Alexis and Jeff (Sam Adegoke) announce their new status as a power couple via a glitzy photo shoot, while Dominique (Michael Michele) looks for help when she runs into obstacles trying to launch her new fashion line. Elsewhere, Anders (Alan Dale) is stunned by what he finds after doing some digging. Sam Underwood and Grant Show also star.
