9 p.m. on PBS NOVA

The new episode "Hindenburg: The New Evidence" searches for the true cause of the infamous 1937 airship disaster, from a fresh perspective offered by the discovery of new, never-beforeseen amateur footage of the crash. This new filmed record captures the final seconds from a fresh angle and with unrivaled clarity that provides clues to the underlying cause. Workers at a leading scientific lab believe this and additional other evidence points to a final solution of this haunting mystery.

9 p.m. on CW Nancy Drew

Ryan (Riley Smith) works with the Drew Crew to find a way to take down Everett (guest star Andrew Airlie) in a new episode called "The Purloined Keys." Meanwhile, Carson (Scott Wolf) has a word of urgent warning for Nancy (Kennedy McMann). Tunji Kasim, Leah Lewis and Maddison Jaizani also star.

9:31 p.m. on ABC Call Your Mother

In an audacious step they hope will move their relationship to the next level, Jean and Danny (Kyra Sedgwick, Patrick Brammall) embark on a trip to her home state of lowa, where some ghosts from her past complicate any hopes they had of moving forward in the season finale "Jean There Done That." Back in California, having gotten hooked on true-crime TV shows, Jackie, Freddie and Lane (Rachel Sennott, Joey Bragg, Austin Crute) become unnerved by the possibility that Patrick is a serial killer.

10 p.m. on ABC A Million Little Things

Rome (Romany Malco) tries to help Tyrell (guest star Adam Swain) find a worthwhile outlet for his escalating frustrations about systemic racism in America in the new episode "United Front." Meanwhile, Regina (Christina Moses) struggles with her mother's concerns about whether Someday has a viable future. Elsewhere, Katherine and Eddie (Grace Park, David Giuntoli) navigate some white-water rapids in their current relationship.
