BAKER CITY — This weekend features a special extra concert in the summer schedule for the Powder River Music Review.

Barefoot & Bonafide takes the Powder River Pavilion stage in Geiser-Pollman Park at 6 p.m. Saturday, July 31.

Brass Fire headlines the Sunday concert, starting at 4 p.m., Sunday, Aug. 1.

Admission is free to the concerts. Donations are welcomed to support the music series, which relies on grants, sponsorships and community donations.

Raffle tickets are sold at each concert — $5 each or 15 for $20 — for a chance to win the week's gift basket.

BAREFOOT & BONAFIDE

This duo features Marilyn Shollenberger and Lonnie Shurtleff, who have played together for about two years (although each has a musical history spanning many more years).

In addition to their regular appearances for the Powder River Music Review, Barefoot & Bonafide has a Facebook page where they play live every Monday at 5 p.m.

area. The band most recently performed in the park on July 17 as part of Miners Jubilee.

Brass Fire formed about eight years ago, and members are all current or retired music instructors.

"We rehearse every Wednesday night for the love of music," said Brad Rozema, who plays trombone.

He said everyone sings, and "we make sure every time we play, everyone gets a solo."

SUPPORT

The concert series is sponsored by Sorbenots, Oregon Trail Electric Cooperative, Gray's West & Co. and Coles Tribute Center, Oregon Trail Motel and Restaurant, Scorpio International, Country Financial, Baker City Realty, Vision Wealth and Mountain View RV. Weekly gift baskets are also supported by Copper Belt Winery, The Cheese Fairy and North Seven Brewing Co.

HE WAS AWESOME. HE MADE IT CLEAR AND EASY TO UNDERSTAND. HE SLOWED DOWN WHEN I WAS CONFUSED AND HELPED ME GET TO WHERE I COULD DO IT ON MY OWN.
