

RIVERSIDE CONCERT SERIES IS FREE ON THURSDAYS

LA GRANDE — Enjoy free weekly live music at Riverside Park, North Spruce Street, La Grande, courtesy of the La Grande Arts Commission. The music begins each Thursday at 6 p.m. Bring lawn chairs, blankets and snacks. The final August lineup is Blue Plate Special on Aug. 5, Shahayla on Aug. 12 and KC Kunkle and Madeline Ford close out this summer's series on Aug. 19.

JOSEPHY HAS CLASSES FOR ALL AGES

JOSEPH — Sign your kids up for art workshops at the Josephy Center. In a class on Thursday, Aug. 12, children will learn the art of printmaking while designing a postcard. The following Thursday, Aug. 19, crafty youth can build their own kite from scratch. There are two sessions of each workshop: ages 5-8 from 10-11:15 a.m., and ages 9-12 from 1-2:30 p.m. The cost is $10 per workshop. The in-person classes are held at the Josephy Center for Arts and Culture, 403 N. Main St., Joseph. To ensure a spot in class, register soon at www.josephy.org.

August brings a class just for grown-ups, too. "Wine & Flower Arranging" is a two-hour gathering for the 21+ crowd on Saturday, Aug. 21, beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Josephy Center. Sign up now to join instructor Dawn Highberger and arrange summer flowers while sipping your favorite wine. Tickets are $45. Sign up online or call the center at 541-432-0505.

WALLOWA LAKE LODGE HOSTS FREE THURSDAY NIGHT TALKS

WALLOWA LAKE VILLAGE — This summer the Wallowa Lake Lodge is hosting a variety of free events, including talks on Thursdays at 7 p.m. The talk on Thursday, Aug. 5, will be given by Jude Graham, curator of the Wallowa County Museum in Joseph, who will tell the stories and drama associated with prohibition times in historic Joseph.

The following Thursday, Aug. 12, Wallowology will host a "Perseid Peaks" presentation at the lodge by D.J. Lincoln of the Wallowa Valley Astronomers. The annual Perseid meteor shower peaks in mid-August, with hundreds of meteors shooting across the summer sky.

DON'T MISS THE HAINES STAMPEDE DEMOLITION DERBY

HAINES — The annual Haines Stampede demolition derby happens Saturday, Aug. 7, at the rodeo arena in Haines. Gates open at 4 p.m., and the derby begins at 6 p.m. Admission for spectators is $15 adults, $10 for seniors and members of the military, and $5 for ages 5-12. Entry is free for age 5 and younger. This event raises money for the Haines Stampede rodeo, which is held July 3-4 every year.

SIDE A PRESENTS TWO CONCERTS THIS WEEKEND

LA GRANDE — This weekend brings two concerts for the Side A-lley concert series, held in the back courtyard of Side A Brewing, 1219 Washington Ave., La Grande. The show starts at 7 p.m. each night. There isn't a cover charge.

Friday, Aug. 6, features The Jack Maybe Project. According to a press release, Jack Maybe and his band are "enchanting, dutiful, jubilant and foretelling."

The solo act of Travelin' Miles will play Saturday, Aug. 7. Hailing from Boise, he plays guitar, banjo, harmonica and a home-made suitcase percussion kit. When he's not traveling solo, he also performs with Honey Bear in a jug band duo.

Wallowa Valley Astronomers

*Do meteorites have peaks? Do meteors have peaks?
What is a meteor shower's "peak"?
Who sneaks peeks at asteroids?
Who speaks if we take a peek at one?
How big does one have to be to pique interest?*

Come join us for an hour of asteroids and astronomy at the Lodge.

We'll discuss the composition, geometry, viability, and ramifications of space dust.
