tonight's best

Whitney Houston

8 p.m. on CW Riverdale

All heck broke loose in last March's midseason finale, as Riverdale's villainous Hiram Lodge (Mark Consuelos) unleashed chaos on the community after his mining operation inadvertently released several dangerous criminals from the local prison. Elsewhere, Reggie Mantle (Charles Melton) set fire to the timberlands after Cheryl Blossom (Madelaine Petsch) defied Hiram in a business deal. Now, as this dark soap returns to finish Season 5, Jughead (Cole Sprouse) is missing, and someone with a gun may pose a deadly threat to Archie (K.J. Apa).

10 p.m. on ABC Superstar

An offshoot of ABC News' long-running primetime flagship program "20/20," this new limited docuseries profiles major celebrities who shaped American culture. Each one-hour episode will spotlight a different superstar, starting with tonight's premiere devoted to Whitney Houston, who died in 2012. In addition to never-before-broadcast personal videos of Houston, the episode also includes archival interviews of the singer and her ex-husband, Bobby Brown, plus new chats with Brandy, Chaka Khan, Bebe Winans and Darlene Love.

10 p.m. on FREE Good Trouble

Alice (Sherry Cola) plays host for a Lunar New Year celebration at the Coterie in the new episode "Lunar New Year." Meanwhile, Callie and Gael (Maia Mitchell, Tommy Martinez) try to solve their ongoing communication problems, and Davia (Emma Hunton) wrestles with her complicated feelings for Matt and Dennis (Erik Stocklin, Josh Pence).

10 p.m. on FX Dave

Season 2 concludes with a finale entitled simply "Dave," probably because it takes place on a day the title character (Dave Burd) has looked forward to for years: the release of "Penith," his debut album. The rest, he feels confident, is about to become music history. Taylor Misiak, Andrew Santino and GaTa also star.
