“Movie: Z for Zachariah”

When an apocalypse wipes out most of Earth's population, a scientist and a miner compete for the affections of the last known woman on the planet in this 2015 romantic drama from director Craig Zobel (“Compliance,” “Great World of Sound”). Margot Robbie, Chiwetel Ejiofor and Chris Pine make up the cast.

“Movie: Paper Towns”

When the girl of his dreams disappears after a night of mischief, high schooler Quentin (Nat Wolff, “The Fault in Our Stars”) and his pals follow a trail of cryptic clues to find her in this 2015 adventure comedy from director Jake Schreier (“Robot & Frank”). Cara Delevingne, Halston Sage and Austin Abrams also star.

“Movie: Absence of Malice”

The rights of the press — and of individuals wrongly targeted by reporters — are explored intelligently in director Sydney Pollack's fine 1981 drama. Paul Newman plays a businessman misrepresented by an overly ambitious Miami journalist (Sally Field). Unable to get a retraction, he concocts a clever revenge. Melinda Dillon and Wilford Brimley co-star.

“Modern Love”

The eight-episode sophomore round of this anthology series that's based on The New York Times column of the same name plays out the intricacies of curiously new and established relationships with a cast including Gbenga Akinnagbe (“The Deuce”), Minnie Driver (“Cinderella”), Kit Harington (“Game of Thrones”), Tobias Menzies (“The Crown”) and Anna Paquin (“Flack”).
