tonight's best

Hugh Bonneville

8 a.m. on NBC
133rd Rose Parade

He may not have landed that coveted hosting gig on "Jeopardy," but LeVar Burton is the grand marshal of this year's colorful parade, for which the theme is "Dream. Believe. Achieve." That overarching concept is intended as a celebration of how education can open both doors and minds, as well as change lives for the better. "This Is Us" stars Chrissy Metz and Susan Kelechi Watson are the hosts. The Rose Parade features three primary types of entries: floral decorated floats, equestrian units and marching bands.

1 p.m. on FREE
The Office

Freeform rings in the new year with a marathon of this Emmy-winning workplace mockumentary, which features 30 of the show's best episodes as selected by fans and the staffs of multiple publications. Opening today's marathon is a Season 3 episode called "The Merger," in which Jim and Pam (John Krasinski, Jenna Fischer) reunite when the Scranton and Stamford branches of the company merge. Steve Carell and Rainn Wilson also star.

8 p.m. on PBS
Great Performances

For his fifth year, Hugh Bonneville ("Downton Abbey") returns to host "From Vienna: The New Year's Celebration 2022," as the acclaimed Vienna Philharmonic ushers in a new year with a performance from the iconic Musikverein concert hall in Austria's capital city. Following tradition, guest conductor Daniel Barenboim will lead his instrumental forces in a program of popular waltzes by Johann Strauss and other members of his family.

9 p.m. on ABC
When Nature Calls With Helen Mirren

This comic nature docuseries narrated by actress Helen Mirren wraps up its first season with two final back-to-back episodes. First, "The Optimistic Mosquito" features a normally pesky insect that wants to do good in the world, and a senior wild boar looking for love. Then, in the finale "Omen Cat," a cheetah is haunted by every critter it ever ate.
