“Bloods”

From British broadcast network Sky comes this comedy series that follows mismatched paramedics Maleek and Wendy (Samson Kayo, Jane Horrocks) as they and their colleagues deal with various cases for their south London emergency service. Lucy Punch, Julian Barratt and Adrian Scarborough are also in the cast. (ORIGINAL)

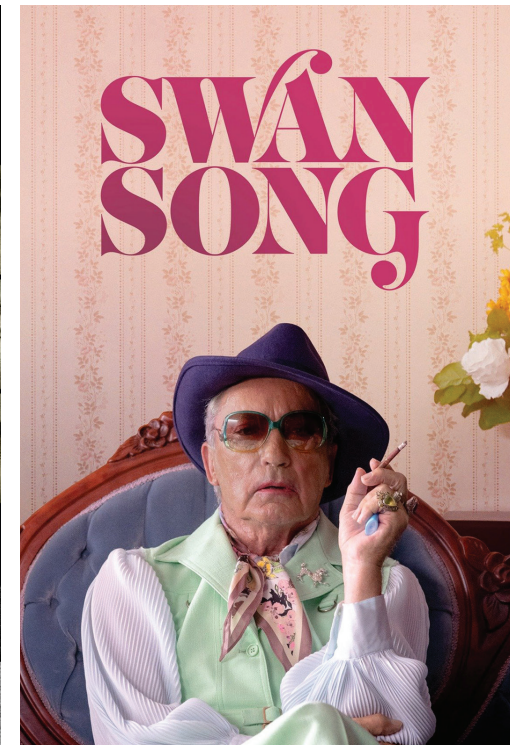

“Movie: Dune”

Frank Herbert's renowned fantasy novel got its first screen representation in director David Lynch's 1984 epic. Kyle MacLachlan heads the enormous cast as Paul Atreides, the young prophet sent in search of the much-coveted “spice” that can save his people. On the planet Dune, he finds much more — including his own destiny. Francesca Annis, Brad Dourif, Jose Ferrer, Linda Hunt, Virginia Madsen and Sting co-star.

“Movie: The Human Factor”

The epic behind-the-scenes story of the United States' 30-year effort to secure peace in the Middle East is the subject of Israeli filmmaker Dror Moreh's (“The Gatekeepers”) 2019 documentary, in which six U.S. envoys recall the ups and downs of the Palestinian-Israeli peace negotiations from the late '80s to 2000.

“Movie: Swan Song”

Todd Stephens (“Another Gay Movie”) wrote, produced and directed this 2021 drama about a retired hairdresser (Udo Kier, “Courier X”) who escapes from his Ohio nursing home to fulfill a former client's dying wish that he style her hair for her funeral. Jennifer Coolidge, Linda Evans and Michael Urie also star.
