

GO! STAFF

follow us

ONLINE

www.goeasternoregon.com

TWITTER

twitter.com/GoEasternOregon

FACEBOOK

www.facebook.com/goeasternoregon

INSTAGRAM

www.instagram.com/goeasternoregon

contact us

EDITOR

Lisa Britton

Go! Editor

editor@goeasternoregon.com
541-406-5274

Sarah Smith

Calendar Coordinator

calendar@goeasternoregon.com

SUBMIT NEWS

Submit your event information by Monday for publication the following week (two weeks in advance is even better!).

Go! Magazine is published Wednesdays in the Wallowa County Chieftain and Blue Mountain Eagle. It publishes Thursdays in The Observer, Baker City Herald and East Oregonian.

ADVERTISING AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

Baker City Herald

541-523-3673

The Observer

541-963-3161

East Oregonian

541-276-2211

Wallowa County Chieftain

541-426-4567

Blue Mountain Eagle

541-575-0710

Hermiston Herald

541-567-6457

What we're into

'JUSTIFIED'

I am perpetually behind the curve when it comes to series television, but every now and then I'll find something that really sucks me in.

One example is "Justified," which ran on FX from 2010 to 2015. A friend turned me on to the show right around the end of its run. I got hold of the DVDs from my local library and burned right through all six seasons. A couple weeks ago I picked up Season 1 from the Grant County Library in John Day, and it looks like the process is starting to repeat itself all over again.

Based on characters created by Elmore Leonard, "Justified" tells the story of Raylan Givens (Timothy Olyphant), a modern-day U.S. marshal with an Old West attitude who gets reassigned from Miami to rural Kentucky, a place he vowed never to return to after his hardscrabble upbringing. There he matches wits with Boyd Crowder (Walton Goggins), a childhood friend turned backwoods crime boss. He also gets involved in a complicated and dangerous love triangle featuring his ex-wife, Winona (Natalie Zea), and Ava Crowder (Joelle Carter), Boyd's newly widowed sister-in-law.

The show delivers fast-paced action, satisfying story arcs, crackling dialogue and quirkily engaging characters. My favorite is Art (Nick Searcy), Raylan's smart-mouthed and perpetually exasperated boss. A close second is Wynn Duffy (Jere Burns), a psychotic Dixie Mafia enforcer who runs criminal enterprises out of a motor home.

But it's the high-tension cat-and-mouse game between Raylan Givens and Boyd Crowder that gives "Justified" its dramatic firepower.

— BENNETT HALL, EDITOR,
BLUE MOUNTAIN EAGLE

MOUNTAINWORKSBICYCLES.COM

1301 Adams Ave.
La Grande, OR

Mon-Sat • 10am-6pm

541.963.3220

New on TV

Prashant Gupta/TNS

Tyler James Williams stars as new teacher Greg Eddie in ABC's "Abbott Elementary."

'ABBOTT ELEMENTARY'

Fellow TV obsessives: We finally have a worthy successor to "The Office" in ABC's "Abbott Elementary." Created by Quinta Brunson, who also stars alongside a terrific ensemble that includes the great Sheryl Lee Ralph, the show centers on an eclectic group of teachers working at an under-resourced elementary school. Loosely inspired by the 40-year career of Brunson's mother, who worked in the Philadelphia public school system, it begins its regular run Tuesday after a teaser episode aired last month (and is available on Hulu if you need to catch up).

"Abbott Elementary" is primarily a showcase for wildly talented and funny women and I'm in the bag for any comedy that has the smarts to leverage Ralph's incredible talents.

— NINA METZ,
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

PENDLETON CENTER for the ARTS

CommUNITY

We're looking forward to a 2022 full of art & music classes, enticing exhibits, and cool, new creations from local makers.

Check out opportunities for creative expression & community connection at PendletonArts.org

