An early medal opportunity comes for the United States today in Beijing in cross-country skiing, where 2018 gold medalist Jessie Diggins figures to vie for podium space in the women's skiathlon. Then in luge, 2018 silver medalist Chris Mazdzer vies for the U.S. in the first runs of the singles event. Also today: finals in women's ski jumping and men's and women's relays in speed skating.

7 p.m. on TRAV Kindred Spirits

And you thought your home makeover was a nightmare! The new episode "Disorderly Conduct" takes the team of Amy Bruni, Adam Berry and Chip Coffey to New York, where they launch an investigation into escalating paranormal activity at a residence that is in the process of renovation. The behavior of the hostile entities within suggest that they feel fiercely protective about the space, and they angrily rebuff any attempts by the human intruders to communicate with them.

8 p.m. on LIFE Movie: Single Black Female

Reeling from an emotional double-whammy in the form of a painful romantic break-up and the death of her father, Monica (Raven Goodwin) hopes her new gig as an afternoon talk show host may mark a new start for her. Her new assistant, Simone (Amber Riley, "Glee"), offers both personal and professional support, so the two women soon become close friends. It's only later that Monica discovers Simone is hiding a dark secret and has sinister designs on Monica's new life. K. Michelle also stars in this new thriller.

9 p.m. on SHOW Movie: Werewolves Within

This 2021 horror comedy was adapted from a video game, but it still earned unusually good reviews, thanks to a snappy script that is more about playful thrills than violence as it follows people in a small Vermont town who get trapped in a snowstorm, only to suspect that someone in their party is a werewolf. The sharp cast includes Sam Richardson ("Veep"), Harvey Guillen ("What We Do in the Shadows"), Michaela Watkins, Cheyenne Jackson and Milana Vayntrub, best known for her TV spots as Lily, the AT&T pitchwoman.
