“Follow the Money”

From Denmark comes this financial crime thriller, the first season of which focuses on a large renewable energy company trying to make its way through a financial crisis and the ethically dubious methods it uses. Problems start when an employee turns up dead and a detective begins investigating the firm. Thomas Larsen, Nikolaj Kaas and Thomas Hwan head the cast.

“Do, Re & Mi”

The birdie friends from the musical world of Beebopsburgh are back in Season 3 of this animated kids series, in which they move to the beat and discover that music can help solve any problem on an island where instruments grow in the forest and Music Mountain towers overhead. The voice cast includes Kristen Bell, Jackie Tohn and Luke Youngblood. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: The Grand Budapest Hotel”

Writer-director Wes Anderson's 2014 comedy-drama has its most valuable player in Ralph Fiennes, cast as the concierge of the title site. He's eager to service the needs of every guest — even if that means going beyond the normal bounds of duty where some of the female clientele are concerned. That dedication eventually gets him into big trouble. Adrien Brody and Jude Law also star.

“Movie: I Want You Back”

Bonded by the fact that they were both dumped and their exes have successfully moved on, total strangers Peter (Charlie Day, “It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia”) and Emma (Jenny Slate, “Obvious Child”) launch a desperate plot to get them back in this romantic comedy from director Jason Orley (“Big Time Adolescence”). Scott Eastwood, Manny Jacinto, Clark Backo and Gina Rodriguez also star. (ORIGINAL)
