tonight's best

Kyliegh Curran

5 p.m. on NBC
2022 Winter Olympics

Figure skating's final event, pairs skating, gets going tonight in Beijing with the short program. Reigning World and European champions Anastasia Mishina and Aleksandr Galliamov of the ROC figure to be the favorites here, though current U.S. champions Ashley Cain-Gribble and Timothy LeDuc will likely also be in the medal mix. Also, the two-woman event in bobsledding gets underway and the men's halfpipe wraps up with the final run.

8 p.m. on DISN
Secrets of Sulphur Springs

Harper (Kyliegh Curran) makes a huge promise to Daisy (Curran again) in the new episode "Check-Out Time." Later, Harper and Griffin (Preston Oliver) share an original document concerning the Tremont, and Grace (Kenneisha Thompson) makes a totally unexpected appearance. Landon Gordon and Elle Graham also star.

9 p.m. on HIST
Ancient Aliens

A new episode called "Secrets of the Star Ancestors" examines how the tradition of many native peoples of North America include stories of powerful otherworldly beings who descended to Earth in the distant past. These beings also are present in the modern world, according to some of this lore. This line of thought raises questions about the origins of the human race and speculates whether the ultimate destiny of humans may rest in the stars.

11 p.m. on HBO
Painting With John

"Quirky" is probably used too often to describe unusual shows, but the word definitely applies to this offbeat series starring musician, actor, director and painter John Lurie, who returns for his second season of six episodes. A combination of fireside chat and meditative tutorial, each episode finds Lurie at his worktable, reflecting on new life insights he recently has received as he works to refine his watercolor techniques. This new season also introduces something called Cowboy Beckett and includes such Lurie meditations as his on-going ambivalence about fame.
