RECRUITS

Camp noted that he suspects MacMillan will play running back, but that there is always a possibility he could see time at the line-backer position.

Another local recruit, Hermiston's Sam Cadenas, will help fill out the roster on the offensive or defensive lines. Cadenas was a first-team all-conference selection at the defensive lineman position, as well as second-team at offensive line.

Camp's mentality is to recruit "Eastern Oregon kind of guys," and there is an emphasis on recruiting locally at Eastern.

"I want to make sure we keep Eastern Oregon talent here," he said. "The kids we recruit locally really understand the values and work ethic involved in playing here."

The Mountaineers snagged two transfer receivers, who were getting limited reps at Western Oregon. Andre Martinez and Blake Davis, a Pendleton High School alum, will help add speed to Eastern's receiving corps.

Camp noted that this year's recruits and their families really bought into the program on their visits and workouts. The Mountaineers are poised to fill the spots of 12 redshirt-seniors who will be moving on from the program.

Eastern is coming off a 4-6 season in 2021. The Mountaineers have not released their 2022 schedule yet, but are slated to begin workouts in the summer.
