tonight s best

Phil Keoghan

8 p.m. on CBS
The Amazing Race

More than two years after filming on the current season began, in February of 2020, Phil Keoghan finally will crown the winners of Season 33 as they cross a finish line in Los Angeles. By any measure, this round has been one for the record books, with the competition put on hold for a year and a half due to the global pandemic. When it resumed last fall, two teams weren't available to continue the race, so two other teams who had been eliminated were allowed to rejoin the race.

8 p.m. on NBC
Chicago Med

Goodwin (S. Epatah Merkersen) assigns the hospital's new compliance officer to a patient with a long-haul COVID condition in the new episode "All the Things That Could Have Been." Meanwhile, Maggie (Marlyne Barrett) helps Will (Nick Gehlfuss) treat a patient who has been confined to an iron lung for 60 years. Elsewhere, Stevie (Kristen Hager) learns some hard truths about her mother, and Terrell (guest star Jerrod Haynes) returns to Med under dire circumstances.

9 p.m. on NBC
Chicago Fire

Chief Hawkins (Jimmy Nicholas) goes above and beyond expectations to help Brett and Violet (Kara Killmer, Hanako Greensmith) out of a big problem in the new episode "An Officer With Grit." Elsewhere, Kidd (Miranda Mayo) pursues a lieutenant position that recently opened up, and someone who is a real blast from the past reappears to ask a favor of Mouch and Herrmann (Christian Stolte, David Eigenberg).

9 p.m. on CW
Batwoman

In the Season 3 finale, drily titled "Are We Having Fun Yet?," Batwoman (Javicia Leslie) and her Bat Team (Nicole Kang, Camrus Johnson) race the clock as Marquis's (Nick Creegan) dastardly scheme balloons into something that Gotham will never see coming. Joining forces with Jada and Sophie (Robin Givens, Meagan Tandy), the heroic trio is forced to call on every skill they command to save the day. Elsewhere, as Alice (Rachel Skarsten) nears her breaking point, Mary pleads again to claim the Joker's buzzer before Alice is beyond saving.
