

High school art students honored at EOU

Show is on display
through March 15

Go! staff

LA GRANDE — The Eastern Oregon Regional High School Art Exhibition featuring nearly 300 works by students from 12 high schools opened Friday, Feb. 25, at Eastern Oregon University's Nightingale Gallery.

Nathan Lowe, dean of EOU's College of Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences, gave a brief welcome to visitors and Nightingale Gallery Director Cory Peeke presented awards for exemplary work by the students.

All Best of Show winners received an award certificate, a $50 Blick Art Materials gift card and a sketchbook from the EOU Art Department as well as an EOU T-shirt and tote bag compliments of the Office of Admissions. Honorable Mention recipients received a certificate of award.

Best of Show, 12th grade: "I" by Julia Zang Caldera, Elgin High School

BEST OF SHOW:

- 12th grade: Julia Zang Caldera (Elgin High), graphite drawing "I"
- 11th grade: Oliver St. Cyr (Baker High), acrylic triptych painting "The Dichotomy of Self and Collective"
- 10th grade: Marielle Graf-funder (Union High), acrylic painting "Glasses"
- 9th grade: Amber George (Elgin High), graphite drawing "Portrait"

CONTINUED ON PAGE 13

Best of Show, 11th grade: "The Dichotomy of Self and Collective" by Oliver St. Cyr, Baker High School

45TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION!

1977

March

2022

ART CENTER
EAST

To learn more about anniversary events
happening in March, visit:

ARTCENTEREAST.ORG