8 p.m. on NBC America's Got Talent: Extreme

If the singers, comics, ventriloquists and other more sedate acts of the original "America's Got Talent" have left some viewers a little jaded by traditional variety performances, this four-week offshoot series probably has kept them entertained with its roster of acts including a parkour aficionado who leaps over oncoming vehicles, a professional human cannonball and a trio of "Jackass" fans who set a colleague on fire and bounce on a trampoline covered in mousetraps. Tonight's finale reveals who claims the $500,000 grand prize.

9 p.m. on FOOD The Julia Child Challenge

Eight talented home chefs who also are Julia Child superfans compete for a dream prize — a three-month all-expenses-paid trip to Le Cordon Bleu cooking school in Paris - in this new culinary competition series. In addition to sharing their own stories about how Child's passion for cooking changed their lives, these cooks will work in a kitchen recreation of where Child herself cooked. Antonia Lofaso is head judge; Michael Voltaggio and Francis Lam join her in the series premiere as two in a rotating lineup of guest judges.
