“Movie: The Peanut Butter Falcon”

This feel-good indie dramedy from co-writers and directors Tyler Nilson and Michael Schwartz stars Zack Gottsagen as a young man with Down syndrome who escapes from an assisted living facility to pursue his dream of becoming a professional wrestler. He quickly forms a tight bond with Tyler (Shia LaBeouf), a wayward fisherman on the run. Dakota Johnson, John Hawkes, Bruce Dern and Jon Bernthal co-star.

“Movie: Dog Days”

Ken Marino directed this engaging 2020 romantic comedy featuring a large ensemble cast in a story that follows the intertwining lives of several canines and their Los Angeles owners. Among the principal characters are Mike (Michael Cassidy), a veterinarian; Dax (Adam Pally), a musician; Ruth and Greg (Jessica St. Clair, Thomas Lennon), Dax's pregnant sister and her husband; and Elizabeth (Nina Dobrev), a morning TV host.

“Movie: Overdrive”

At the behest of a crime boss, car thief brothers (Scott Eastwood, Freddie Thorp) have a week to pull off the heist of a vehicle — or else — in this 2017 action adventure from director Antonio Negret (“Seconds Apart,” “Transit”). Ana de Armas, Gaia Weiss and Simon Abkarian also star.

“Movie: Chronicle”

Superpowers aren't necessarily a benefit if you don't know how to use them properly, as the comrades at the heart of this 2012 sci-fi tale learn quickly. Dane DeHaan, Alex Russell and Michael B. Jordan play the central trio, which largely uses the “Blair Witch Project”-“Cloverfield” approach of amateur videotaping to show the events as they unfold. The result effectively depicts ordinary people in extraordinary circumstances.
