artists are featured in Wasco and Hood River counties. More than two dozen Native artists participated in two-week residencies at Crow's Shadow Institute of the Arts, producing the works for "Contemporary Native Voices: Prints from the Crow's Shadow Institute of the Arts."

The exhibitions can be viewed through Saturday, March 26, at The Dalles Art Center, 220 E. Fourth St., and Columbia Center for the Arts, 215 Cascade Ave., Hood River. Both facilities are open Tuesday through Saturday, 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Admission is free.

Each year, Crow's Shadow invites a select number of visual artists and sculptors to participate in its residency program. Participants produce limited edition prints on subject matters of their choosing. For more information about Crow's Shadow, email info@crowshadow.org, call 541-276-3954 or visit www.crowshadow.org.
