

Enjoy live music, celebrate art at the Josephy Center

Go! staff

JOSEPHY — The 2022 women's exhibit at the Josephy Center for Arts and Culture closes Saturday, March 26, with live music from 6-9 p.m.

The reception also features the announcement of the works that earned the People's Choice and Director's Choice awards.

The show, titled "An Invitation to the Lighter Side," opened Feb. 26 at the center, 403 N. Main St.

The curator was Kolle Kahle Riggs. The show is sponsored by Wallowa County Soroptimist, Wallowa County Cultural Trust and the Collins Foundation.

The women's exhibit is an annual art show held at the Josephy Center. This year's theme invited women artists to "explore humor and the joys that keep us going through challenging times."

The exhibit features 28 artists from the Pacific Northwest.

Those unable to make it to the center to see the art in person can take a virtual tour. Go to www.josephy.org. Hover over "Exhibits/Events" and click on "An Invitation to the Lighter Side."

The Josephy Center is open Monday-Saturday, noon-4 p.m.

"The Shampoos of My Youth," digital print by Zanni Schauffler

"Love, Punky," artist's book by Roberta Lavadour

"Times Forgotten," pastel by Debbie Hughbanks

We thank these Chambers Members for their continued support

UNION COUNTY
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
www.VisitUnionCounty.org

Northeast Oregon Network

M. J. Goss Motor Co.
MAKER OF WABASH

HERITAGE STATION
The Umatilla County Historical Society Museum

The Call of Public Service:
The Life and Legacy of Mark O. Hatfield

Heritage Station presents a traveling exhibit from the Oregon Historical Society

March 5 - April 3, 2022