Go! Magazine

PENDLETON — Pendleton Center for the Arts, 214 N. Main St., has lined up a host of fun classes for teens, youth and adults in 2022. Classes are open for registration even if they are underway now, and many are free of charge.

Director Roberta Lavadour invites everyone to check out their events, exhibits and classes and try something creative and fun. When registering, please ask if there are any mask or COVID-19 vaccination requirements in order to participate as state health guidelines will be followed.

To sign up, call 541-278-9201 or visit classes@pendletonarts.org. A list of classes follows:

TEENS AND YOUTH

TEEN CLAY with Brian Purnell
Tuesdays, 4-5:30 p.m.

Ongoing, join anytime, but register online. Previous experience is not necessary. Beginners and returning students welcome. This course is being offered for free thanks to donors, and support from the Roundhouse Foundation. This class is limited, so be sure to register.

TEEN UKULELE with Ian Summerfield
Tuesdays, 4:30-5:30 p.m.

Class began Feb. 1 but it's ongoing, so join anytime. Please register with the center. Students will work on chords and strumming techniques, while practicing classic ukulele songs as a group. Bring your own ukulele, borrow one from the PCA, or purchase one through the Pendleton Music Co. Registration is required. Class is free but size is limited. Inquire about possible mask requirements.

PCA CREATION STATION
Tuesday-Friday 11 a.m.-3:30 p.m.
Saturdays 12:30-3:30 p.m.

Staff have transformed a portion of the Pearson Auditorium into the PCA Creation Station for this free, drop-in art experience. Kids and families can drop by during open hours for a self-directed art-making experience.

Materials, inspiration and space are supplied.

ADULT CLASSES
HIP & HANDMADE

Every Saturday, 10:30 a.m.

Join one of our creative and enthusiastic staff members for this casual, free, no pressure get-together. Participants gather around a big table to work on a different project each week, depending on what has captured our interest. No need to sign up, no tuition, just drop by.

SPIN IN

First Saturday of the month,
1-3 p.m.

Join the fiber fun gang on the first Saturday of every month. Those who spin, knit, crochet or do any creative hand work are welcome. Free.

GUITAR FOR BEGINNERS
with Charlie Herrington
Tuesdays, 6-7 p.m.

April 5-June 21 (10 sessions)

No class on May 27. Join in any time at a prorated rate. Learn basic guitar skills and build a foundation for playing all kinds of music. Starts with the CAGED system and simple scales and basic rhythms. Please bring a guitar — visit Pendleton Music Co. for instrument rentals.
