“The Last Kingdom”

The ninth century-set British action series based on Bernard Cornwell's “The Saxon Stories” finally returns for its fifth and final season after production was delayed a year by the pandemic. Disappointed fans should take note, however, that a follow-up movie is planned for some point in the future. Alexander Dreyfuss, Emily Cox and David Dawson are among cast returnees. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: The Bubble”

Judd Apatow (“Trainwreck,” “This Is 40”) co-wrote and directed this comedy that follows the antics of a group of actors and crew as they try to complete the sequel to an action blockbuster while quarantined in their hotel during the pandemic. The solid cast includes Karen Gillan, Fred Armisen, David Duchovny, Keegan-Michael Key and Apatow's daughter Iris. (ORIGINAL)

“Celeb Five: Behind the Curtain”

Jokes and improv are front and center of this mockumentary special from South Korea, which takes viewers behind the scenes as the four remaining members of the comedic girl group Celeb Five try to come up with new material for an upcoming special. (ORIGINAL)

“Michela Giraud: The Truth, I Swear”

The Rome-born actress and comic's self-deprecating style is in evidence as she tells real-life stories about her childhood and her relationship with her sister and discusses adolescence, the adaptation to popularity, the stereotypes of life and how it is possible to break them down, in this stand-up special filmed at Vinile in the Italian capital.
