It was seven stories high, had 95 guest rooms, a ballroom, restaurant, coffee shop and the Sage and Sand Lounge, and even a roof garden.

This luxurious hotel was a true gem in La Grande's downtown. A high-speed elevator took the guests from the 53-foot by 53-foot lobby up to their rooms. The average size of a guest room was 12 by 16 feet and each room had a private shower and bathtub. The floors were carpeted and there was wallpaper on the walls. A variety of color schemes was planned on each floor so that every guest could choose a room to suit his/her individual taste.

The Sacajawea was the place of many memories of Sunday dinners, dances, banquets, service club meetings and other community activities. Jonathan Winters performed here, KLBM got its start here, and who could forget Vic Prosch's barber shop.

In 1930 Roesch built the seven-story Roesch Building, known as the Annex, on the corner of Fir and Washington. For a time several floors of this building and the Hotel were connected by a sky bridge in order to provide more hotel rooms.

The Hotel served small businesses, travelers and local citizens of La Grande for many years. During World War II, from March 1943 until June 1944, it was under the Army's control and aviation students were housed there.

The building with its poured concrete and brick construction was built to be fireproof. This in the long run proved to be its downfall. When motels started to eat into the hotel business, it was planned to turn the Sacajawea into apartments and offices. But the plan was too difficult to execute because of the sturdiness of the original structure. So in 1970 the wrecking ball leveled the mighty Sacajawea and in 1971 the US Bank was constructed on the corner of Fir and Adams. Keep looking up! Enjoy!

YOUR BIRTHDAY by Stella Wilder

Born today, you are a strong-willed individual who is not likely to give way to anyone without something of a battle -- and even when you are faced with evidence that your opinion is faulty, you're not likely to adjust your thinking without some kind of fight. Indeed, you are perhaps the most aggressive individual born under your sign, and when young you may well have had more than your share of run-ins with authority because of behavior that is considered unacceptable.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) -- You can do what you are called on to do today, and the only thing standing in your way is your own uncertainty. Don't psych yourself out!

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) -- You mustn't force an issue that is really only a matter of taste or preference. There's room for both you and a rival in the same room.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) -- A reunion has you wishing you were somewhere else -- but not for the reason you may think. By day's end, you'll be changing your tune, surely.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) -- You may wonder at an old friend's seeming change in attitude. Not much is different, so perhaps you've both followed divergent paths.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) -- The broad strokes have been completed, and now you must focus on the details. This current project will reveal a great deal about you to many.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) -- The past and the present may collide today -- while you're busy thinking about the future. Take some time to tie up several loose ends.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) -- An unfamiliar yearning is likely to send you in a new direction today, at least for a short time. What you discover proves quite valuable.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) -- You'll derive a great deal of personal strength from what you see and hear all around you today. It's a good time for you to step up.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) -- Where you are right now may not resemble, in the least, the picture in your mind of where you want to be. What is it that must change?

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) -- How you present yourself today will make all the difference, but it all depends upon making an early start and not missing any unspoken cues.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) -- You can do much to ease someone's discomfort today -- but what about your own? You may discover that you simply have to ride it out.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) -- You may be quite erratic today, at least in the eyes of someone who is trying to capture the essence of you in some way. Cooperate.
