“Troppo”

This joint U.S./Australia crime thriller series stars Thomas Jane (“The Expanse,” “Hung”) as Ted Conkaffey, an ex-cop accused of a disturbing crime who flees and hides out in the tropics of Far North Queensland. There, he gets drawn into investigations of a wild murder and a missing person alongside a complicated woman (Nicole Chamoun, “The Gloaming”) with secrets of her own. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Gone Girl”

Adapted by Gillian Flynn from her own bestseller, director David Fincher’s well-spun screen version was one of 2014’s most-discussed films. A man’s (Ben Affleck) wedding anniversary is marked by his wife’s (an Oscar-nominated Rosamund Pike) disappearance, and as the investigation proceeds, he looks more and more like a suspect ... with his attitude definitely not helping his case. Tyler Perry and Neil Patrick Harris co-star.

“Movie: Emergency”

A chase all over town ensues when two college seniors about to embark on an epic night of partying find a drunken woman passed out in their apartment in this comedy from director Carey Williams (“RJ”). RJ Cyle (“I’m Dying Up Here”), Donald Elise Watkins (“Black Box”) and Sebastian Chacon (“Penny Dreadful: City of Angels”) star. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Kick Like Tayla”

From Australia and first-time documentarian Andrew Garrick comes this hourlong film that celebrates one of that country’s most recognizable athletes, Tayla Harris, who balances successful careers in boxing and soccer with her personal life as she strives for greatness amid much media and social controversy.
