NTERPRISE — Locals and visitors to Wallowa County will once again be treated to live music every Thursday on the shady lawn of the county courthouse in Enterprise.

The Wallowa Valley Music Alliance has presented the Courthouse Concert Series since 2006.

"Everything from folksongs to brass bands will delight audiences as they pause for some relaxing outdoor time with family and friends," said Janis Carper, WVMA executive director.

The opening concert on Thursday, June 9, will feature Wallowa County's own Jezebel's Mother (Carolyn Lochert and Janis Carper) with special guest Tracy Spring from Bellingham, Washington.
