9 p.m. on A&E Intervention

A&E Network's groundbreaking - and Emmy-winning docuseries that profiles subjects struggling with an almost hopeless addiction to a substance or destructive behavior returns for its 24th season of stories about families trying to save a loved one from oblivion. The season premiere, "Kenny," looks at a Northern California native whose childhood dreams of playing for the NFL were scuttled by a series of mistakes during high school. Eventually, Kenny was homeless and severely addicted to fentanyl. His family turns to interventionist Michael Gonzales for help.

10 p.m. on HBO Gentleman Jack

This critically acclaimed British historical dramedy — which was adapted from the diary of "the first modern lesbian," Anne Lister — wraps up its sophomore season with "It's Not Illegal," a finale that finds the marriage of Anne (Suranne Jones) and Ann Walker (Sophie Rundle) in serious peril. The threat comes in the form of Captain Sutherland (recurring guest star Derek Riddell), Ann's brother-in-law, who has arrived from Scotland determined to destroy Anne Lister's reputation. This series is awaiting a decision regarding a potential third season.
