

Kick off July with new art shows

Go! staff

BAKER CITY — Start your holiday weekend with new art shows at galleries and shops around town during the First Friday art walk, July 1.

ROYAL ARTISAN

1912 Main St.

Linda Larson, a new resident to Baker City, will show her stained glass at Royal Artisan, starting with a reception Friday, 5:30-8:30 p.m.

Linda Larson/Contributed Photo
Linda Larson will show her stained glass pieces during July at Royal Artisan.

ANDERS GALLERY

1802 Main St.

An opening reception for Claire Remsberg is set for 5-7 p.m. Friday. An avid outdoors-woman, Remsberg finds inspiration in the natural world and often paints on location (en plein air). Her work will be on display through July. The gallery is open Thursday-Saturday, 11 a.m.-4 p.m., and by appointment.

CROSSROADS CARNEGIE ART CENTER

2020 Auburn Ave.

"The Sustainable Feast," the Oregon State University's Art About Agriculture exhibit, will be on display at Crossroads from July 1-30.

The show opens Friday, 5:30-8 p.m., with Americana music performed by D'Club L'Eveque featuring Debbie Friedman and John Woodard, and a drawing for a $25 gift certificate to Baboon Creek Outfitters. Campbell's Catering and Sweets will have treats available for purchase.

"The Sustainable Feast" features 2D and 3D art from artists across the Pacific Northwest that create a focal point around the practices of sustainable agriculture in Oregon.

As part of this exhibit, Crossroads will hold a sustainable agriculture practice panel on

Corrine Vegter/Contributed Photo
Corrine Vegter will show her fish-inspired art at Sweet Wife Baking in July.

Monday, July 18, 10 a.m. Panelists will include Dr. Staci Simonich, dean of the OSU Agricultural Sciences and director of the Oregon Agricultural Experiment Station; Dr. David Stone, director of the OSU Food Innovation Center; Bryan Endress, OSU associate professor and Rangeland Sciences Program Lead; as well as local producers. This panel is open and free to the public.

CHURCHILL HALL PASS GALLERY

3451 Broadway St.

Karissa Kelly will open her show "Kurious" on Friday, 5:30-8 p.m., at Churchill.

SWEET WIFE BAKING

2028 Main St.

Artist Corrine Vegter created a series of Pacific Northwest fish from vintage saws, and will show some of these new works at Sweet Wife Baking, starting Friday, 5-8 p.m.

She'll also show brightly colored trout and salmon block prints she created on paper and wood during printmaking sessions at Churchill School.

BAKER HERITAGE MUSEUM POP-UP AT NORTH 7 BREWING

First Street and Washington Avenue

The museum will have a special pop-up exhibit for First Friday, 4-8 p.m., at North 7 Brewing.

CODY'S GENERAL STORE

2101 Main St.

Explore upcycled furniture at Cody's General Store, Little T. Moose and Cody's Paint Studio — all three shops will be open 5:30-8 p.m. for First Friday. This will kick off a drawing for a cancer awareness dresser — check the Facebook page for details.

SUNN JUICE + DECOR

1917 Main St.

This shop will stay open late for First Friday, with music by Paul McNeil from 5-8 p.m.

We thank these Chambers Members for their continued support

UNION COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
www.VisitUnionCounty.org

Thai Fresh Gardens AND SUSHI

The Ad Dad

Thunder RV

POTTER'S HOUSE Gallery

Shop Local, Grow Your Heritage

Community Thrift Shop

ALL PROCEEDS BENEFIT UMATILLA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Tuesday - Saturday • 10 AM - 4 PM
138 SE Court St.