BAKER CITY — Tribute bands are coming back to The Ison House this summer, and owner Twila Lavery is scheduling an escape room between concerts, too.

The first concert on the lawn is Journey tribute band Wheel in the Sky NW on Saturday, July 9. Gates open at 5 p.m. at The Ison House Bed & Brew, 1790 Washington Ave.

Trailer Hitch takes the stage at 6 p.m. The headliner starts playing at 8 p.m.

Tickets for all the concerts are $20, and the age has been lowered to 13 and older, rather than 21 and older.

"I had a lot of people saying their teenager would have really liked to come," Lavery said.

Tickets are available in advance at theisonhouse.com, or at the gate.

In addition to the music, attendees can purchase beer, cider, other beverages and food.

Lavery encourages everyone to bring a lawn chair. Pets are not allowed.

MORE CONCERTS

Back Into Black, an AC/DC tribute band, plays Saturday, July 23, with special guest Jetta-Tar (a tribute to Joan Jeff and Pat Benatar). Gates open at 6 p.m. and the music starts at 7 p.m.

ESCAPE ROOM

The Ison House started offering escape rooms this spring, and the puzzles continue this month with "The Case of the Missing Miner." Slots are available

July 13 and 14, and July 16 and 17. Cost is $30 for a group up to four, and participants must be 13 and older.

Lavery rates the difficulty as beginner to intermediate. To escape the room, each group must decipher puzzles, clues and use problem solving skills.

To choose a time, go online to theisonhouse.com and click on "Escape Room."
