WINE WALK INCLUDES SPECIAL BANNED BOOKS EVENT

BAKER CITY — On the Third Thursday of each month, Baker City Downtown organizes a wine walk with participating businesses that stay open late to welcome shoppers.

The walk starts at 5 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 18, at Launch Pad Baker, 2019 Main St. A donation of $10 gets a commemorative glass and map of participating locations. A portion of this month's proceeds will go to the Baker County Library District to help start a Banned Books Club, in which members would read books that have been banned or challenged and then critically discuss each work.

During the walk, Jeana Phillips, owner of Betty's Books, is organizing "Banned Books & Buns" at Sweet Wife Baking, 2028 Main St. She will be there with a selection of books that have been challenged in the past, accompanied with the reason for the challenge, the location and the date.

Library Director Perry Stokes will also be on hand to talk about the First Amendment and the role of libraries for providing access to information.
