“Hotties”

Set in food trucks in the desert heat, each 30-minute episode of this dating competition series challenges two pairs of singles to make a meal and choke down extreme spicy food challenges in a bid to fast forward the dating process and win a cash prize. Comedian Jade Cattapreta (“American Housewife”) is the host. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: International Falls”

Rachael Harris (“Lucifer”) stars in this 2019 comedy as a woman stuck in a snowbound town on the U.S./Canadian border who dreams of being a stand-up comedian — that is until she meets a burned out comic (Rob Huebel, “The Descendants”) who would rather do just about anything else. Kevin Nealon, Erik Griffin and Matthew Glave also star for director Amber McGinniss (“The Company We Keep”).

“Movie: On the Count of Three”

Jerrold Carmichael (“The Carmichael Show”) made his directorial debut with this dark 2021 comedy about Val and Kevin (Carmichael and Christopher Abbott, “Catch-22”), best friends who endeavor to settle old business on the day before they make good on their suicide pact. Tiffany Haddish, J.B. Smoove and Henry Winkler also star.

“Mike”

Trevante Rhodes (“Moonlight,” “If Loving You Is Wrong”) has the title role of legendary boxer Mike Tyson in this unauthorized, eight-episode limited series that explores the tumultuous ups and downs of the former heavyweight champ’s career and personal life — from being a beloved global athlete to a pariah and back. Harvey Keitel, Laura Harrier and Russell Hornsby are also in the talented cast. (ORIGINAL)
