

SIP, SHOP, SUPPORT LOCAL

LA GRANDE — The monthly “Sip, Shop, Repeat, Local” happens Thursday, Sept. 1, 5-8 p.m. in downtown La Grande.

To start, visit the Union County Chamber of Commerce, 207 Depot St., from 4-7 p.m. to purchase a commemorative tumbler for $10.

The walk includes at least 25 businesses, plus pop-up vendors who set up in front of the chamber on Depot Street, which is closed for the evening.

HEAD TO SUMPTER FOR THE YEAR'S LAST FLEA MARKET

SUMPTER — Labor Day weekend marks the final flea market for the year in Sumpter, which welcomes vendors to set up along the main street and the fairgrounds.

Also, Sumpter Valley Railroad will offer short runs from the Sumpter Station on Saturday and Sunday at 12:30 p.m., 2 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Sunday follows that schedule, plus an earlier ride at 11 a.m. Tickets are $18 adults, $15 military/seniors; $11 ages 3-17.

Sept. 3 also features a Wine and Cheese Train for ages 21 and older. It is sponsored by Copper Belt Winery and The Cheese Fairy. The train leaves McEwen at 6 p.m. Fare is $60. Reserve tickets at sumptervalleyrailroad.org.

JUNIPER JAM, MUSIC WORKSHOP IS SEPT. 3

ENTERPRISE — After missing 2020 and 2021, Juniper Jam is returning on Saturday, Sept. 3.

Gates open at 11 a.m. at the Wallowa County Fairgrounds, 668 NW First St., Enterprise. Tickets are $25 at the gate or $20 in advance at Joseph Hardware, The Bookloft, M. Crow, or the event website. Admission is free for ages 12 and younger with a ticketed adult. Camping available for $10 per night at the fairgrounds with a festival ticket.

In the morning, award-winning songwriter Tracy Spring will teach a songwriting workshop from 10-11:30 a.m. at The Woodshed, 705 S. River St., Enterprise, OR. Cost is $20.

Spring was recently on staff at the Puget Sound Guitar Workshop and has long included teaching among her musical endeavors. She will cover various aspects of a song that make it compelling (lyrics, melodic line, chord structure and content).
