RED MILL FURNITURE
Care • Pride • Workmanship
Made in America

Red Mill Furniture is a division of Parma Post & Pole, Inc., a 33 year old company that's one of the largest post and pole plants in the Western U.S. In 2009 we purchased Red Mill Furniture (formerly Sportsman's Lodge Furniture) to diversify our business and target new markets. We're located 50 miles west of Boise, Idaho along the Snake River and Oregon Border.

We're a different kind of furniture company. We don't sell off the internet and we protect our wholesale clients, whom we value so highly. Furniture is a very personal purchase and is not taken lightly. Individual pieces tell a lot about a person's home and who they are and what they believe in. If purchasing "Green Products" is a priority than look no further than sustainably harvested wood.

Please consider our outstanding products and superior customer service. Flashy photos and websites don't tell the whole story with each piece of furniture. You need to put your hand on it, close the drawers, pick it up and turn on its side to see the quality we build. Once you do this, you'll realize this is a lifetime piece of furniture made in America with care, pride and workmanship you can be proud of.

Thank you! We look forward to doing business with you.
