IIEA awards $18,500 in scholarships to 30 students

The Idaho Irrigation Equipment Association awarded $18,500 in scholarships to 30 students for the 2015-2016 school year. These students were selected on the basis of their academic accomplishments, leadership and career goals.

"These students are amazing," said Dirk Leavitt, 2015 IIEA Scholarship Chairman. "We are able to provide scholarships to college students because of the generous donations of our member companies and from the profits of the Idaho Irrigation Equipment Show and Conference."

The IIEA has awarded

629 scholarships totaling $380,500 since 1980. The following students received scholarships in 2015:

- Breanna Attebury McCook, daughter of Derick and Kristin Attebury, Idaho Falls, received a $600 scholarship to pursue her degree in communication at BYU-Idaho. The money for Attebury's scholarship was donated by the IIEA and Kermit and Candy Cochran.

- Andrew Bingham, son of Harold and Laurie Bingham, Homedale, received a $700 scholarship to pursue his degree in financial economics at BYU-Idaho. The money for Bingham's scholarship was donated by Matco Norca and Gheen Irrigation Works Inc.

- Ethan Brandt, son of Jeremy and Maribeth Brandt, Coeur d'Alene, received a $500 scholarship to pursue his degree in biology at the Masters College. The money for Brandt's scholarship was donated by Matco Norca.

- Hanna Chaffin, daughter of Scott and Kimberly Chaffin, Kirkland, Wash., received a $700 scholarship to pursue her degree in Spanish and elementary education at Boise State University. The money for Chaffin's scholarship was donated by the IIEA.

- Travis Chase, son of Mike and Donna Chase, New Plymouth, received a $600 scholarship to pursue his degree in agribusiness and soil science at the University of Idaho. The money for Chase's scholarship was donated by Cornell Pump Co. and Butte Irrigation.

- Morgan Cortez, daughter of Pete and Holly Cortez, American Falls, received a $500 scholarship to pursue her degree in agribusiness at Casper College in Wyoming. The money for Cortez's scholarship was donated by Lindsay Corp.

- Nicole Davis, daughter of Steven and Laree Davis, Chester, received a $500 scholarship to pursue her degree in agricultural education at the College of Southern Idaho. The money for Davis' scholarship was donated by Inman InterWest, Inc., Matco-Norca and Ag Sales.

- Karmella Dolecheck, daughter of Thomas and Suzanne Dolecheck, Twin Falls, received a $500 scholarship to pursue her Ph.D. in animal sciences at the University of Kentucky. The money for Dolecheck's scholarship was donated by Matco-Norca.

- Aaron Emmert, son of Chris and Beverly Emmert, Nampa, received a $500 scholarship to pursue his degree in agricultural business at the University of Idaho. The money for Emmert's scholarship was donated by Nelson Irrigation Corp.

- McKenzie Forsberg, daughter of Jeff and Carma Forsberg, Caldwell, received a $500 scholarship to pursue her degree in bioveterinary science at Utah State University. The money for Forsberg's scholarship was donated by Matco-Norca.
