How to write ads that sell!

1. KEY WORD AND BENEFIT:

Tell the reader immediately what you are selling. Then state a benefit to the reader. Example: "German Shepherd Puppy, 8 weeks, silver and black male, AKC. House trained, good disposition, ideal companion for your child, $75. (000) 000-0000."

2. BODY COPY:

Let the potential buyer know the facts. Include make, model, year, size, color, condition, or any special features of your item.

3. PRICE FAIRLY:

For best results, it has been proven that a price should be included. If you're willing to make a deal, be sure to add "or best offer." People aren't necessarily looking for low prices, but for GOOD VALUE.

4. PHONE NUMBER:

A most essential item! If you can be reached only at certain times, let your potential buyers know when they can best reach you. Add "evenings; after 5:00 pm; before noon," etc.

5. EFFECTIVE & ECONOMICAL RESULTS

Not every potential buyer on that particular week will be in the market for your specific item. Initially, PLACE YOUR AD FOR FOUR WEEKS. You'll get the benefit of a BETTER RATE PER ISSUE in a consecutive, multiple-insertion schedule, and you may maximize your potential readership. Many more people will have the opportunity to see your ad AT LEAST ONCE. When you get the desired results before the ad expires, you may cancel your ad by our weekly deadline and pay only for the number of times it ran.

Maxine L. Keesling

(Age 94) of Woodinville, Washington, Sunday, September 24, 2017. Raised in Eastern Washington, Maxine cherished summers at her grandfather's farm. Maxine was "thoroughly inculcated" with her grandpa's "pay-your-own way, control-your-own-destiny" philosophies.

Maxine married the late James Keesling in 1944. They provided an idyllic childhood for their children. In a time when it was uncommon for women, Maxine set up her own real estate company, Country Northwest, specializing in acreage. She wrote letters-to-the editor to speak out effectively against government incursions on property rights. Privately, Maxine routinely contributed to those in need.

Maxine is survived by her four children (Shereilyn Ernst and husband Jerome, Scott Keesling, Susan Valenta and husband Frank, and Holly Towle), seven grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Friends are welcome to join the family in an informal celebration of Maxine's life on Saturday, November 4. Contact Jessica Valenta at jvalenta22@yahoo.com or (206) 755-5698 for details.

Donations may be made in Maxine's name to the King County Library System Foundation www.kclsfoundation.org or to The American Land Rights Association <http://landrights.org/>
