Auto Parts

We have been rebuilding and repairing differentials and transmissions for over 45 years. Our experience, our work ethic, and our relationship with our customers sets us apart from the rest. We talk to you about your unit and discuss options. Sometimes, just an inspection to know the gears are in good order is all that is needed. We have reman units on site....Ratco built! We also have the ability to order new units at competitive prices. When we talk to you about your differential or transmission, we are working with you to keep you informed of what might be needed. You are in charge and that's exactly how we like it. We want you on the road doing what you need to do. We are happy to have you call us to talk about your unit or visit the shop. It's the experience and customer appreciation....and it makes all the difference. TRUCK GEAR SPECIALISTS
