SELLERS BEWARE

• Know who you are dealing with – independently confirm your buyer's name, street address, and telephone number.
• Never accept a check for more than your selling price.
• Never agree to wire back funds to a buyer or a third party – a legitimate buyer will not pressure you to do so, and you have limited recourse if there is a problem with a wire transfer.
• Resist pressure to "act now." If the buyer's offer is good now, it should be good when the check clears.
• If you accept payment by check, ask for a check drawn on a local bank or a bank with a local branch. You can visit that bank branch to determine if the check is legitimate.
• Consider an alternative method of payment, such as an escrow service or online payment service. If the buyer wants to use a service you have not heard of, be sure to check it out to be sure it is reliable. If you do not feel comfortable with the service, do not use it.

BUYERS BEWARE

• If the deal sounds too good to be true, it probably is.
• Know who you are dealing with – independently confirm your buyer's name, street address, and telephone number.
• Don't send payment for an expensive item you haven't inspected.
• Consider how you pay. Credit cards have significant fraud protection built in, but some payment methods don't. Wiring money through services such as Western Union or MoneyGram is risky because it's nearly impossible to get your money back. That's also true for reloadable cards and gift cards. Honest companies won't require you to use these payment methods.
• Never use a bank-to-bank transfer in a transaction.
