Good News.

The people of Southern Oregon can now reach a Keely Institute in a short ride. A branch of the Oregon Insti-tute has been opened at Roseburg, with a thoroughly competent physician in charge and the best of accommodations. There is no excuse for suffering from the diseases of liquor, cpium, etc., when relief is so near and so surely at hand. The Institute at Forest Grove is also in existence and is well filled with pa-tionic all the time. tients all the time.
