

ALL THE LOCAL NEWS.

—Ed. Hogan opened his tinshop on Front street today.
—I am selling refrigerators VERY cheap. Call and see me. I. A. Webb.
—All colors of tissue paper for fancy work—at the Racket.
—The changed ads of Merriman & Legate and Palace barber shop appear in this issue.
—Pioneer maple sap like you. uster pack at the "biling down," at Wolter's.
—Mrs. Tice has recently completed a quite good sized addition to her residence on North C street.
—Finest line of cigars ever brought to Southern Oregon, at C. W. Wolters'.
—Dan'l Cofar has been awarded the contract for the erection of Postmaster Howard's C street residence.
—Clothing at cost at Henry Smith's. Only a small supply left.
—Ed. Pottenger has been quite ill for the past few days with malarial fever—he was able to be out Wednesday.
—Try our broken Java coffee at 25 cents per pound—Fawcett & Morris.
—M. M. (alias Shorty) Pickering is engaged for a time as cheap big iron hammerer in the Wilson blacksmith establishment.
—Just over; from the other shore. Crockery at Wolter's.
—Garl T. Jones is changing things about out at his B street residence—moving his barn and a whole lot more improvements.
—Try some of St. Charles' Evaporated Cream, at Fawcett & Morris'.
—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Hara has been quite ill for the past few days but is considerably improved at present.
—Wilson & Dowell will sell the Osborne mower at cost for the next thirty days.
—Henry Smith's store for bargains during the next 20 days. Men's hats, men's, boys' and girls' straw hats, embroideries and yarns, all at cost.
—Imperial wheels at cost for the next twenty days—A. Galloway, Medford.
—Merchant S. Rosenthal expects to leave for New York August 25th. He desires that all parties owing him should call and settle on or before that date.
—D. G. Johnson, of Eagle Point, is stopping in Medford for a few weeks and is engaged in building an addition to J. W. Ward's residence on Eleventh street.
—Dress trimming lace, the finest in town—just received at the Racket store.
—A. M. Woodford is one of the all round handy men of Seventh street and his services were called into use to a good advantage by Merchant Cranfil this week.
—Red Seal and Schilling package tea—finest in the market—Fawcett & Morris'.
—Asa Fordyce, residing just south of Medford, threshed out fifty acres of wheat Tuesday which yielded 173 bushels, or nearly thirty-two bushels to the acre.
—SAVE MONEY to go to the world's fair by buying goods cheap at D. S. Youngs.
—The Medford brewery has placed its beer on sale, and those who have sampled it say it is just as good as the average and in some respects several notches ahead.
—Go to Morris & Fawcett and get a package of Pride of Japan Tea. Take no other.
—The family of J. C. Hill, from Eastern Oregon, arrived in this city this week and are now house-keeping with Mr. Stockham on B street. Mr. Hill is a son-in-law of Mr. Stockham.
—Ber five cents per glass, hereafter, at the Remy Ann saloon. Medford whisky 5 cents per glass.
—The sheriffs of Lane and Douglas counties received last Saturday the reward of $300 offered by the Southern Pacific company for the arrest and conviction of the would-be train wrecker, "Hero" Richardson.
—The CHEAPEST place in Medford to buy new shoes is at the Second Hand Store, on C street.
—D. S. Youngs is making some improvements at the front of his store building. He is taking out the awning posts and putting in bracket supports instead and is as well widening his sidewalk to eight feet.
—Lost—A tomahawk scarf pin, somewhere in the city. Finder please leave at this office and receive suitable reward.
—There are the times when we may reasonably expect fires to originate from various sources. Campers are a source of many fires and those who leave fires burning should be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.
—Remember that you can buy anything in the line of gent's furnishing goods at cost at Henry Smith's.
—Washington's greatest aside show traveling has quit business. The show disbanded at Sison, Calif., this week. There is surely a grain of solace to its manager in knowing that if he must disband it won't take long to do it.
—On account of large stock on hand I will sell summer goods at a reduction of ten per cent. A. Fetsch, the Tailor.
—By some locus pokus proceeding Geo. Mathes, who was arrested for forgery, at the instance of Bert Dowell, was discharged. The trial was had last Saturday at Ashland, but the evidence was considered insufficient to convict.
—Prof. Narregan's trip down Rogue river was cut short several days by his illness which was that of fever. Since Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

returning he has been troubled considerably from the fact of his getting his hands in too close proximity with a poison weed of some sort.
—Charlie Sherman, the Medford popular painter, is over at Jacksonville this week engaged in re-painting the coach and engine on the Medford-Jacksonville short line.
—What is it? Conserves Alimentares Petits Pois. Do you kumtux? Ask Wolters, the grocer.
—Rev. Ira Wakefield will speak at the Industrial Legion basement hall in the Christian church, in Medford, on Saturday evening, August 12th. His lecture will be under the auspices of the Legion, and everybody, irrespective of party, is invited to attend.
—For the next 20 days we will sell all grades of men's boots and shoes at cost. Henry Smith.
—It is given out that Attorney W. H. Parker, who has recently disposed of his fine farm at a good round sum, will move his family to Medford, establish a home and open a law office—and still they keep coming our way. We can stand a whole lot of fellows like Parker.
—Hoods Pills are easy in action.
—A party of Jacksonville's young people passed through Medford yesterday bound for Crater Lake. The party consisted of Mike, Ella and Alice Hanley, Emma Plymale, Mollie Barneburg, Jas. Donagan and sister. They were equipped with a four horse team and a camping outfit of immense proportions.
—Have you seen those beautiful crayon Portraits at Angle & Plymale's? You can have one free of cost.
—The ladies of the Presbyterian church have organized a Ladies' Aid society with the following officers: President, Mrs. G. H. Haskins; vice president, Mrs. E. P. Geary; secretary, Miss Ada Barr; treasurer, Miss Lucinda Shideler. Their meeting will be held on the first and third Tuesday of each month.
—C. C. C.—California Cream Cheese and Crooked Creek Crank. The former for sale at Wolter's.
—L. Henderson and R. Jargansen, of Woodville, are the gentlemen who are making ready to open up the bakery and restaurant on Seventh street. They expected to be open for business Sunday but owing to the fact that their oven collapsed when a fire was started, it will be a few days later before they are ready to supply the market.
—Go to Hamilton & Palm for prices on houses and lots, also unimproved lots and acre tracts—on the installment plan.
—The Medford Rod and Gun club are arranging for a shooting tournament to be given in Medford during the encampment of the soldiers and sailors. They are turning every stone possible to make the tournament a success and when these fellows start out on a project it is sure to be carried through, and in a manner to the credit of themselves and our city.
—Ketchup—made from tomatoes—and homemade. Go's well with the doughnuts your mother used to make—at Wolter's.
—Charlie Laughlin, oldest son of Mason Laughlin, living about three miles west of Medford, met with quite a severe accident one day last week. He fell from the feed table of a threshing machine, striking his back on the corner of the table which injured his spine quite badly. Those who saw him say he came very near falling into the cylinder, which was running at the time.
—Last Wednesday when Justin Wigle was out at the Mix Muller saw mill after a load of lumber his team became frightened—and ran away, scattering things about in great profusion. The team ran about a mile and there were parts of the wagon strewn at every few rods of the distance. Justin was thrown from the wagon and for a time was unconscious. He was somewhat bruised—but not seriously.
—The famous "Tula Water," for beautifying the complexion. For sale at the city drugstore. Mrs. J. H. Faris, branch office manager for the coast.
—Mrs. S. M. West, who left Medford a few weeks ago for a visit with friends in Nebraska, has recently been appointed, by Ex-Governor Furnace, to the position of expert judge in the art department of the state fair at Lincoln. The lady's knowledge of art is evidently receiving merited recognition abroad as well as at home. She will teach in the art department of the Medford business college the coming year.
—Wanted—Ladies to canvass for me. Agents can make from six to twelve dollars per week. Address, Mrs. J. H. Faris, manager of branch office for the Women's Co-Operative Toilet Co., Medford, Ore. Lock box 74.
—C. F. D. Camp, the insurance agent who was in Medford last spring and took such an active interest in the Leadbetter railroad proposition, is now at Coos Bay doing insurance and probably taking as much interest in local affairs as he did when here. He is a good man in his line of business and a pretty good fellow generally, but he lost friends in Medford when he went to fooling with the wrong side of our pet proposition.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Postmaster HOWARD was at Gold Hill this week doing a job of surveying.
—Mr. and Mrs. WM. TURNER and son, W. H. TURNER, are enjoying an outing at Coldstein.
—Mrs. H. D. JONES, of Wilderville, is visiting in Medford with Geo. Anderson's family.
—S. F. MORINE, one of the good ranchers near Central Point, was doing business in Medford last week.
—J. J. FRYER is a rancher of no small calibre over at Eagle Point—he was doing trading in Medford Tuesday.
—CLARENCE KELLOGG, of Portland, and engineer on the steamer Northwest, is in Medford for a few days visit.
—Dr. O. F. DEMOREST and family left yesterday morning for Ashland creek, where they will camp for three or four weeks.
—P. R. NICHOLSON came in from Eastern Oregon last Saturday and will make Medford his home, for a few months at least.
—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. PALM and Mr. and Mrs. MEDVINSKI, are enjoying the mountain beauties of Coldstein for a week or two.
—Miss RACHEL COTTRELL left Medford Wednesday morning for Hornbrook, Calif., to remain for a few months and perhaps longer.
—Dr. DANIELSON was called to Gold Hill Tuesday evening to attend, professionally, Mrs. S. P. Conger, who is reported quite ill.
—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. STROBRIDGE and Mr. and Mrs. HAINES, left Medford yesterday morning for a two weeks' outing at Crescent City.
—Mrs. JASON KELLOGG returned from Portland Tuesday. She expects to remain in Medford for sometime and will occupy her residence in town, corner C and Sixth streets.
—W. C. STOCKHAM and family are among the latest arrivals in Medford. They are from Eastern Oregon and are here for permanent residence. They have rented a dwelling on B street and are now house-keeping.
—Dr. KERCHHOFFNER and his brother-in-law R. M. HEATH, drove to Grants Pass Tuesday morning and returned in the evening. Sixty miles is a pretty good drive, but doctors horses are built that way, usually.
—W. D. DAVIS, a rancher who tills the fertile soil to much profit, was in Medford Tuesday doing trading with our merchants—all the same a whole lot of other fellows from a distance. This gentleman is from B-angle.
—J. V. SHINER, of Portland, has been stopping in Medford since last Friday and has decided to locate here for a time. He has leased T. W. Johnson's residence and will go to house-keeping as soon as his family arrive.
—W. H. HOSLER came over from his place near Powell creek this week and was telling big stories regarding the richness of that country. He says two men who own a claim adjoining his washed out $75 in clear gold last week.
—Miss KATE PLYMALE, who has been making relatives and friends in Medford a very pleasant and quite extended visit, returned Wednesday to her home at Jacksonville. The lady expects to soon make an outing visit to the mountains.
—G. W. BARRON, of Barron station, was in Medford last Friday on business. Misfortunes have been running in the family of Barrons for the past while. Last Tuesday G. W. was injured somewhat in a runaway and the next day but one his father was severely injured in like manner.
—E. C. POMEROY, of B-angle, was a sojourner in Medford for several hours Tuesday. The gentleman is a horticulturist, and if his neighbors tell no false stories on him, he is a good one. He enters a claim for the finest products in their line of any grown in the valley and defies all competitors.
—Mrs. F. L. CRANFIL returned Tuesday from her several weeks' visit at the world's fair. The lady reports having had a very pleasant time and also states that she purchased a fine stock of goods for the new mercantile firm of Cranfil & Hutchinson, which are expected to arrive in about three weeks.
—Miss ISABELLE GALLAHER, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Fred Snyder. The lady is a teacher in the Pittsburgh public schools and was one chosen by popular vote for free transportation and all expenses to the world's fair—the same having been given by the Pittsburgh Times.
—Mrs. F. M. PLYMALE and daughter MEDA, returned Tuesday evening from their extended visit at Albion, Calif. They were accompanied by Mrs. Plymale's daughter, Mrs. John Curry, and three children, Ethel, Gladys and Ray, who will remain in Medford a few weeks for a visit with relatives and friends.
—Miss KATE ROBB, of South Bend, Wash., arrived in Medford last week. Her services have been secured as teacher in our public schools. She comes highly recommended and will no doubt prove an efficient aid to our school work. Should the lady like our city and country her father will undoubtedly locate here.
—Prof. M. E. RIGBY returned Monday from his visit to the Illinois flat and the Applegate country and reports having sold thirty scholarships in the Medford business college. At the rate these scholarships are coming in there will be little room to spare, but as the new college is by no means a small one there will undoubtedly be room for all.
—B. B. HUBBARD, the pioneer wagon-maker and all round good citizen of Eagle Point, was in Medford Tuesday

O! the Agony Of Those who Suffer from Scrofula

Hood's Sarsaparilla Purifies, Soothes, Heals, CURES.
I have for many years been a great sufferer from SCROFULA breaking out on my arms and legs; they were covered with eruptions and sores, discharging all the time. I tried very many medicines and consulted physicians far and near, but constantly grew worse. I have taken but three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla for rheumatism, and has derived so much benefit from it that he declares there is no other medicine on earth. We would not be without it in the house if it costs $20 a bottle. T. VANLEY JOHNSON, San Jose, Cal. N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.

Hood's Cures
rills for rheumatism, and has derived so much benefit from it that he declares there is no other medicine on earth. We would not be without it in the house if it costs $20 a bottle. T. VANLEY JOHNSON, San Jose, Cal. N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.

C. W. WOLTERS * THE * GROCER,

PURE FOOD PURE FOOD
Natty New Neckwear for Summer.
London says wear this, and Paris says wear that, but to be in line you must wear both; not at the same time, however. Artistic taste is "bred in the bone." Our Neckwear buyer has his selections prove it. Extreme novelties—dainty colorings, new shapes—and, in fact, anything you might desire for a summer tie. The latest London and Paris fads as well as moderate priced goods are in our collection. "SEING IS BELIEVING." WOLTERS THE GROCER.
We Like the Ladies to come to our store, whether they come to buy or not. We try to have something new to interest and attract them. We realize that the Ladies Like Bargains, and so we always manage to have something in all of our departments at special low prices. This week we are having a great run on CROCKERY AND FRUIT JARS WOLTERS THE GROCER.

MEDFORD, OREGON.

GET * A * BUSINESS * EDUCATION!
WE TEACH SHORT-HAND AND TYPEWRITING. MEDFORD OREGON. WE TEACH TELEGRAPHY AND PENMANSHIP.

BUSINESS COLLEGE, THE Practical Business Training School of Oregon.

OUR NEW BUILDING IS NEARLY COMPLETED.
M. E. RIGBY, PRINCIPAL.
PREPARE YOURSELF FOR A USEFUL LIFE. WRITE FOR PARTICULARS.

MEDFORD, OREGON.

J. R. WILSON, GENERAL BLACKSMITH AND HORSE SHOER.
Wagons and Buggies Made to Order
All Work Warranted First Class. Medford, Oregon.

OREGON STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, MONMOUTH, OREGON.

The leading normal school of the Northwest. Strong professional and academic courses, and well organized model school for practical training of teachers, normal, advanced normal, business, music and art departments. Beautiful and healthful location. Light expense, no saloons. The normal has enjoyed a steady growth during the past year, reaching an enrollment of over 400, the largest in its history. New members have been added to the faculty; new apparatus supplied, and the course of study revised and strengthened. The graduates are in demand to fill good positions. The diploma entitles the holder to teach in any county in the state without further examinations. Tuition, normal, $8.25 per term of ten weeks; sub-normal, $5 per term of ten weeks; business, $8.25 per term. Board at normal dining hall, $1.75 per week. Rooms from 50 cents per week (unfurnished), to $1 and $1.25 furnished. Board and lodging in private families $3.50 to $4 per week. Tuition, board, lodging and books, less than $10 per year. Conservatory of music. Through courses are offered in vocal and instrumental music. Tuition, $10 per term of 20 lessons. Monmouth is easily accessible from all parts of the state, 12 miles from the state capital, sixty miles south of Portland. Catalogue cheerfully sent on application. Address, P. L. CAMPBELL, Pres., or S. SHEDD, Sec. of Faculty.

COPPER RIVETED OVERALLS AND LEVI STRAUSS & CO'S SPRING BOTTOM PANTS EVERY PAIR GUARANTEED. ADDRESS: SAN FRANCISCO, CALI