The churches of Medford will observe November 30th as a national thanksgiving day.

A MAN arrested for flirting in the streets in an eastern city, has been released, there being no law to hold him. Thus any idiot is at liberty to flirt, requiring only the consent of one other idiot.

The current of human history is very seldom deflected one way or the other by the outcome of a South American rebellion. When the rebels overthrow the government it is simply one band of rebels defeating another band of rebels, and it matters little to the world which rebels are victorious.

DISASTROUS reports of the late storm on the gulf coast still continue to come in. It was, perhaps, the most devastating storm known in our history. The old theory that the settlement and cultivation of a country tended to make destructive storms less frequent has been badly invalidated of late.

PRESIDENT Cleveland last Friday signed the bill extending for six months the time in which Chinese can register under the Geary law. The Six Companies will now need begin a six months' scheming process whereby they may again be enabled to defy the laws of our government. Great is the United States, but greater still are the Six Companies.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has proclaimed that Thursday, November 30th, shall be a day of national Thanksgiving. Governor Pennoyer has given out his edict setting aside Thursday, November 23rd, as a day to be devoted to eating turkey and thanking the Almighty for all the goods of life. You can pay your money and take your choice, but the same turkey will not answer for both days.

EVERY farmer ought to read a good, live farm journal and one published in the interests of the advancement of farming in the immediate locality where live its readers. The Rural Northwest, published at Portland, is the best farm journal on the coast. It would not be of great value to the farmers of Maine, Florida or Manitoba, but it is worth many times its subscription price—$1 per year—to farmers of Oregon and Washington. It treats upon subjects which you want to know about.

"A TWO-HORSE farm wagon was driven through town Wednesday," says the Hillsboro Independent, "that had on farm products valued at $350. Had the product been wheat it would have required about fifteen wagons to have carried $350 worth. The bales contained hops." How many Rogue river valley farmers are preparing to grow hops? Are you content with forty-five cent wheat? We are told that this valley is as well adapted to hop culture as is the Willamette. Why will you not get out of the old wheat growing rut?

SOME few weeks ago the Alliance investigating committee of Lane county caused suit to be commenced against Sheriff Noland of that county for charging illegal fees to the amount of over eleven thousand dollars. Last week Judge Fullerton overruled defendant's demurrer to plaintiff's complaint and gave defendant twenty days in which to answer. He also granted the injunction restraining the treasurer from paying the warrants issued to the sheriff for $11,158.36 as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint. Whether Mr. Noland be guilty or innocent the bringing of the suit will serve a good purpose. If innocent it can be easily proven and his good name will in no way be dishonored. If guilty it will have a tendency to slacken the pace of county officials and will show them that while they are elected to conduct the affairs of the county they are not the county itself. An indictment can be proved of profit to the county treasury. The county treasurer is the only officer of the county who is not elected by the voters.

pending the result of investigations instituted, it would do no harm if the affairs of our county were looked into. No harm can be done anyone unless crookedness is found and in that case it would only fall to those who justly deserve it.

"The Rock Point summer term of school closed Friday. Owing to the sudden departure of our county treasurer the term was very short." The above appeared in the Rock Point correspondence in THE MAIL of last week. There is a text in the above from which a sermon of lasting good might be written and which ought to be preached at the bedside of every one of ex-Treasurer Bloomer's bondsmen. Not only is the county to be floored out of the use of the money Bloomer stole until such time as the courts shall decide that they must make good the thief's defalcations, but the children of those, who in many instances, can give their little ones at the best only a very meagre education and few chattels or acres of land, are to be deprived of the benefits of a few months' schooling because that a county treasurer has stolen their school funds, but the curse of the thief is not visited alone upon he who stole their money but as well upon those of his bondsmen who refuse to make good his shortcomings because that they see a possible loop hole in the process of law through which they may escape the payment of their obligations to the county. As to how much of this sort of business the taxpayers of Jackson county will stand is more than we can guess, but that there are grounds for an investigation, particularly in the Bloomer case, there don't seem to be any question. There is positively something dead wrong in the workings of Jackson county affairs and THE MAIL is ready to give its assistance to any party or parties who will take the initiative step toward locating the crookedness and releasing the people from the tax yoke which is galling them to the quick and empowering their purse.

Republicans Got It All—Pretty Near.

Last Tuesday was state and county election day in seventeen states, and the republicans took nearly everything in sight. New York is republican throughout, including delegates to the constitutional convention—New Jersey legislature is republican—Jackson, republican, is elected governor of Iowa by 30,000 plurality, legislature republican—In Kansas the populists are defeated by republicans—Maryland 12,000 democratic—Massachusetts 50,000 republican—Pennsylvania 100,000 republican—South Dakota 40,000 republican—Ohio goes republican and elects McKinley governor by 80,000 majority, legislature also republican—Looks like equal suffrage had carried in Colorado—Republicans claim Nebraska.

Missionary Meetings.

Rev. Dr. Phraner and wife, of New York, representing the mission boards, home, foreign and ladies' executive committee of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America, will be in Medford next Monday, November 13th, and will hold two meetings in the Presbyterian church. In the afternoon at 2:30, Mrs. Phraner will give an address, especially to the ladies, on the subject of "Woman's Work for Missions." In the evening at 7 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Phraner will speak on "Personal Incidents on Mission Fields." Dr. and Mrs. Phraner have been all over the world, personally visiting every Presbyterian mission station in foreign lands. They are visiting now as many of the churches of the Pacific coast as possible, for the purpose of arousing a greater interest in foreign missions, among christian people. This is the object of their visit here. We cordially invite and urge everyone to come and avail themselves of this rare opportunity of hearing directly from the fields. Everything is free, no admittance, no collection.

REV. ALEX. S. FOSTER,
Pastor Pres. Church.

Meeting City Council.

Present Mayor W. I. Wavter, Councilmen Roberts, Plymale, Wilson, and Miller.
Engineer Carder's salary reduced from $50 to $35 per month. This was in accord with contract made by Mr. Carder—Six months at $50 and six months at $35.
It was ordered that two new stone street crossings and two alley crossings be put down. The street crossings will be laid on south C street at the intersection of Eighth street and the alley crossings near the Halley block and Mr. Ulrich's office. Frank Watt was given the contract at 114 cents per square foot.

Seventh, Eighth and High School—No. enrolled 102; number belonging 86; daily attendance 87.

Total enrollment 335; average attendance 315; number enrolled same month in 1892, 318; increase 57.

Net receipts of oyster supper $11.

The short-hand class recites from four till five.

Rev. Grant visited us and left encouraging thoughts with all.

Josie Benson is teaching in Miss Sinclair's place three days of this week.

The efficiency and thoroughness of the work is increasing in every department each day.

The supper given by the young ladies of the High School was a social and financial success. If you think the rising generation is not full of power, energy and hard work, visit the public schools.

The P. S. band boys are grateful to the young ladies for their kind remembrance. But just what till they get their brass buttons.

The Seventh Grade commenced work at 8 o'clock. In our experience we never have seen boys and girls so thoroughly in earnest.

The band readers thanks to all who in any way aided in the entertainment for their benefit and are always ready to return the compliment.

Resolutions of Respect and Condolence.

WHEREAS, death has taken from our midst our beloved brother, Jay Bradley, THEREFORE, be it resolved, that we hereby express our sorrow for the loss of one of our most respected and honored brothers.

AND that we extend to his family our deepest sympathy in this their time of sorrow.

AND, furthermore, that these resolutions become a part of the records of this lodge and a copy be furnished to THE MEDFORD MAIL, for publication, and also a copy under seal of the Lodge be transmitted to the bereaved family. Fraternally submitted.

Big Sticky Items.

BY BILL NYE'S BROTHER.

G. S. Moore is spending the week in Central Point with his brother, Russ.

Several of our young people attended the "hey" at Central Point last Friday night.

Mrs. Wm. Gregory and daughter, Lizzie, took in the sights of Medford last Saturday.

Mrs. James Gregory spent Saturday in Medford visiting her mother and sisters.

A traveling photographer was in our midst one day last week and made some most excellent pictures of the Mound school.

Miss Cora Little, of Central Point, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Forest Moore.

Charles Carney was called from the ranch last Saturday, to the bedside of his wife, who was dangerously ill, in Medford.

Last Wednesday evening, our friend and general favorite, Forest Moore, was married to Miss Effie Dixon, a highly respected young lady of Central Point. We wish this young couple, just starting on the sea of matrimony, a calm and peaceful voyage through life, and hope they may receive every blessing that heaven can send.

Your correspondent attended a social party at Mrs. Adams last Wednesday night, given in honor of Mrs. Emma Hornby, who is visiting relatives and friends here. The party was largely attended and greatly enjoyed, and the young folks will anxiously look forward to another invitation to Mrs. Adams' pleasant home.

Prospect Items.

BY WILL.

Mr. Gray has gone to the valley to get winter supplies.

Mr. Aiken's children are improving from the scarlet fever.

The dance at Mrs. Manning's, at Leeds, was an enjoyable affair.

We are glad to state that Elsie Nye is much better, though still unable to leave her room.

The child of Mrs. Boothby burned his hand quite seriously last week by thrusting it against a heated stove.

We are pleased to note that one of the pleasant visitors at the mill recently was our efficient school teacher, Miss E. L. Benson.

Mr. Boothby has been hauling lumber for Mr. Ellis, who is putting up a dwelling house on the old Boothby place above Mr. Nye's place.

Miss E. L. Benson has closed her school in the Garden district, having finished out the term begun by Miss Birch. Miss Benson reports a very successful school.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon have gone to the valley—to old Mr. Gordon's on a short visit. Denny and Alfred Gordon have gone east of the mountains to help drive up the Pelton cattle. Uriah Gordon has gone to his brother's, near Medford.

CURRENT NOTES.

It does not follow that a man with a sneaky voice is a corn doctor.—Utica Observer.

The next thing a long-suffering public learns will be the fact that gas companies are putting pneumatic tires on their gas meters.—Ohio State Journal.

"Don't honestly believe the love-making on his part is real." He—"I shouldn't wonder. I hear that her diamonds are genuine."—Indianapolis Journal.

FRANK—"But what advantage is there in wearing a monocle?" Adolphus—"Good god, man, how could I see with both eyes covered?"—Boston Transcript.

Mrs. PUTTER POINT was asked if she believed in gas for cooking. "O, yes!" she replied; "but 'twas everything we heat by gas."—The proper fuel for gastronomy!—Fun.

Land For Sale.

The undersigned has for sale town lots in Ish's addition to Medford, and also farming land adjoining and near Medford, Oregon.

Eagle Point Eagles.

BY TALKO.

Tom Nichols drove seven head of fat cows to market last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Williscraft made a flying trip to the county seat last Saturday.

A trinket peddler was picking up the nickels and dimes around Eagle Point last week.

Mr. Stevenson, a farmer formerly of Grants Pass, has removed to the vicinity of Brownsboro.

We had two pretty frosty nights last week. The thermometer was down to 18 degrees above zero.

A hog buyer was around last week and secured a good lot of them at 44 cents per pound.

A photographer was soliciting work at Eagle Point last week, and about the time some of our people had saved money enough to get their pictures taken the photographer departed for Gold Hill.

The postoffice changed hands on last Friday. A. J. Florey surrendered the office and all its belongings to S. G. Holmes and his deputy, C. W. Taylor. The office was moved across the street into the room lately vacated by Dr. Stanfield. The present management will put in a stock of notions and sundries next spring, so as to keep themselves busy while not occupied in distributing mail.

An otherwise pleasant little party at Merchant Brown's on last Thursday evening turned out very unpleasantly and will perhaps end seriously to one of the guests. It appears that the younger members of the party indulged in a Jack 'o lantern show outside the rooms and Miss Gladys Fryer, who is very nervous, was so badly frightened that she fainted and had a succession of hysterical fits for two or three days and is yet confined to her bed.

Last Saturday, at 10 a. m., the residence of A. G. Johnston was discovered to be on fire. A. G. was in the field near by plowing. The children gave the alarm but before A. G. could get to the house Mrs. Johnston had rushed up stairs with a bucket of water and by judicious and energetic work had the flames well under control, which were soon put out altogether. The fire originated from a defective stove-pipe on the roof and a strip of roof four feet long on the comb, was in flames. The only thing that saved the house was the fact that it was rainy that morning.

Since we published our last list of new subscribers, six or seven weeks ago, the following new names have been placed on our subscription books. If there is anything which would prompt all the hustle in a fellow to come to the surface it is a realization of the fact that his subscribers are becoming more numerous. While we have been gathering in this list only one name has been taken from our books.

CHRONIC DISEASES
NERVOUS DISEASES
PRIVATE DISEASES

Are treated with the greatest success and that all curable diseases in either sex are CURED FOR LIFE, NO INCURABLE CASES UNDERTAKEN.

And all other diseases of a private or complicated nature or made specially by the doctors of this institute, and are therefore treated with uniform success.

A Friendly Talk may Save You Years of Suffering and Perhaps Your Life.

It stands to reason that those physicians who devote their whole time to the study of and practice on a special line of diseases are ordinarily much skillful in the treatment of those ailments than those doctors who undertake to cure everything.

S. ROSENTHAL,

Medford, - - - - - Oregon.

They Were All Gaily.

In preaching against the sin of flirtation a French priest grew quite warm in charging the female members of his congregation with the offense. Suddenly he took off his small cap, and, pretending to throw it, said: "I'll throw my cap at the worst among you." Immediately every woman in the congregation ducked her head.

A Goshite Reminder.

The Kennecott Journal tells this story of Manager Tucker, of the Maine Central railroad: "Some time ago a section boss was sitting idly by the station when Mr. Tucker stepped off a train and asked him if he needed more help. When the boss replied in the negative Mr. Tucker walked a little distance along the track, picked up a couple of bricks and removed them to their proper place. 'Every time I have passed by here for several weeks,' he then remarked to the boss, 'I have seen those two bricks lying there, and I thought because you left them maybe you didn't have help enough.' With that he mounted the train again and moved off, leaving the bricks in either sex are CURED FOR LIFE, NO INCURABLE CASES UNDERTAKEN.
