R. Glays, the traveling dentist, was with us the fore part of the week.

James Beaver, of Central Point, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. M. Swinden and Miss H. Knotts spent last Tuesday with Mrs. M. Stover.

Weather like spring, grass growing fine and flowers in bloom. Isn't it fine for January?

Messrs. Knotts and Swinden, of this place, were attending justice court at Jacksonville lest Friday.

Mr. McDonald, of Ashland, is here at present looking after some mining interests connected with that of Dr. Braden.

Joe Stover is engaged in making a bridge across Kanes creek above the Braden mill, which was washed away by the recent freshet.

It is becoming quite a fashion here to be jumping one anothers quartz claims, and there has already been guns drawn on parties for this kind of doings, but we hope the trouble will not result fatally.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kindneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at G. H. Haskins' Drug Store.

Albert Reinholtz, has opened a tailor shop on Pine street. Any one wishing work done in his line will do well to give Al. a call before going elsewhere.

A Kansas Man's Experience.

Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it." 50 cent bottles for sale by G. H. Haskins.

Eagle Point Eaglets.

BY TALKO.

Lizzie Wilson is on the sick list, a case of tonsilitis.

John Neustrom has almost finished putting in a large crop on his farm. He is a worker, and we wish him a bountiful harvest.

The Central Point bridge was partially carried away by the flood thus making it impossible for people from this side to reach the Point. Roadmaster W. F. Moore, however, quickly came to the rescue and made a little foot-bridge that enabled anyone who wished to cross over safely.

About a week ago Charley Carney went to Medford to visit his family and after spending a few days with them started to return home, but the bridge being impassible he was compelled to leave his team and wagon and come out on foot. Last Friday Charley found Bear creek fordable, so brought his team home.

The most delightful little party it was ever your correspondent's lot to attend, was held at Frank Morgan's pleasant home last Tuesday night. There was no "big I and little you" about the company, but all met on a common level and a general good time was had. Everybody in the neighborhood received a cordial invitation and those who failed to attend missed a very pleasant evening.

Quite a crowd gathered at the Mound school house last Thursday to organize a people's party club. It was intended that Mr. Holt, of Medford, should deliver the address, but owing to his absence, J. W. Smith was invited to take the floor, which he did, and made some interesting remarks. It was arranged to hold the next meeting the first Saturday in February. All desiring to aid in this work should attend these meetings. The following officers were elected: J. W. Smith, president; W. J. Gregory, vice-president; Frank Morgan, secretary; G. C. Roberts, treasurer.

A New Cure for Rheumatism.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by G. H. Haskins.

Griffin Creek Gatherings.

BY OCCASIONAL.

Mrs. J. Fry is expecting her parents out from the east soon.

The buttercups are in bloom. Does that indicate an early spring?

E. L. Redpath recently purchased a fine new White sewing machine for his wife.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Griffin has been quite sick but is now recovering.

The "grippe" has flown from our neighborhood to seek some place where it will receive a warmer welcome.

Sunday being a warm sunshining day our road supervisor was out viewing the roads. He found there was lots of room for improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Guches intend moving up on the timber land owned by D. B. Soliss, the coming week, Mr. G. having taken a contract of chopping wood on the same.

An error was made in the name in an item the previous week wherein it stated that J. P. True had cleared several acres of land and intended setting out fruit trees on it. It should of read John Fry instead of J. P. True.

Messrs. Heriford and Griffith, the enterprising woodchoppers, living in the Griffin creek canyon, have beat the record in the amount of wood cut from one tree, having cut and corded over fifty tier of two foot wood from one pine tree. The tree measured five and a half feet in diameter.

Our entergetic road supervisor J. P. True, has had a ditch constructed leading west from the road to Griffin creek on the line between his place and Mr. Spencer's, thereby draining the road of all the surplus water that gathers along the low places and had kept the road through Enterprise lane in an almost impassible condition. Its good effect can already be seen.

Spikenard Sparks.

BY NEMESIS.

Sunshine and bare ground for a week past. Spring is here apparently.

Stock has come through in good shape as the range has been good and snow of short duration.

Piles of mail to-day, as we have had no mail since Jan. 17th, owing to very high water and washed-out bridges.

Our new road supervisor, Wm. Carter, is out with a force of men repairing the alleged roads of his district. He has a fine opportunity to distinguish himself as an efficient public servant. All he need do to attain glory, honor and the respect of the community is to use judgement and dilligence in the discharge of his duty. All good citizens of the district will follow his lead if on the lines laid down. We have had a sorry admistration of road affairs for the past two years.

In Alabama the Williamson Iron works, with a capital of $150,000, and the Birmingham Iron works, same capital, have been placed in the hands of receivers.

A. M. Thomson, former speaker of the Wisconsin legislature and for a number of years the editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel, has taken unto himself a bride at the advanced age of 71 years. The bride, Miss Annie Freeman of Chicago, is 43.

The new 13-inch guns designed for the battleships Oregon, Indiana and Massachusetts should send a shell through 25 inches of steel at any distance within 1,000 yards of the muzzle. The first one of those guns will be tested at Indian Head proving grounds in a few days.

The British Columbian parliament has memorialized the Dominion government to increase the Chinese head tax to $100, three-fourths of the tax, whatever its amount, to be paid to the province, as most directly injured by the presence of the Chinese.

The indictments of the San Bernardino grand jury have been quashed, owing to the fact that one of the jurors was a convicted felon. The work of the grand jury had not been performed satisfactorily, and the quashing of the indictments was popularly approved.

William T. Stead, the spiritualistic medium at Chicago, has been advised by his "spook," whom he calls Julia, that he will live to be 70 years old and then, having become involved in a mammoth "work of reform," will so arouse the opposition of the populace that he will be kicked to death in the streets.

The judge at Boston in the Everett nickel-in-the-slot case has decided the machines are part of a game of chance, and Wallace, at whose stores machines were placed by which a cigar or a card telling your fortune appeared when the nickel was dropped in the slot, was found guilty of keeping a gambling house.

Miss Minnie Fitzpatrick, a cancer patient in a private ward in St. Catherine's hospital, Brooklyn, will inherit, her friends say, between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 if she lives until June 19. The money referred to is part of an estate which can not be divided until June 19, when a male member of another branch of the family becomes of age.

New York city capitalists have decided that there is big money in the collapsable vessel raising device, which was formerly owned at Tacoma. The owners went East a year ago to raise Vanderbilt's palatial yacht. Instead they raised another vessel, and demonstrated that their canvas wind bags when inflated inside a sunken vessel would raise her to the surface. This interested capitalists, and a syndicate of New Yorkers now stands ready to put up $1,000,000 for the patent rights for the United States alone. They say the harbors of all countries are dotted with sunken craft, all of which can be raised with big canvas wind bags operated by a few men.

RECORD OF CRIMES AND ACCIDENTS.

At Boone, Ia., eight inmates of an insane asylum were cremated in the burning of the building.

Peter Sparkman, who shot Officer Collins at Riverside, committed suicide when surrounded by officers. He preferred death to capture.

The shops of the Perdue university at Lafayette, Ind., which were recently dedicated, were completely destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of over $250,000.

Arthur Stewart, deputy superintendent of streets at Los Angeles, has been found guilty of embezzling $600. Department money was loaned to friends, and when he made his returns he could not collect the money.

At Jackson, Amador county, Mrs. W. H. Carley was burned to death through the upsetting of a coal oil lamp. She was alone in the house and when found the evidence showed that she had successfully fought the fire, but lost her life in doing so.

George H. Painter was executed at Chicago for the murder of Alice G. Martin. The work of the execution was horribly bungled. The rope broke at the first attempt and the condemned man was carried back limp and another rope secured and he was strung up again. Painter was a gambler and killed his mistress.

Edward Cathcart, aged 20, and Miss Eva Pass, aged 18, broke through the ice while skating on Oswego canal at Phoenix, N. Y. Cathcart by a great effort succeeded in getting the young woman upon solid ice, but was so exhausted he could not help himself out and was drowned. Miss Pass was found unconscious on the ice shortly after. Cathcart was the son of a widow and her only support.

Matthew R. Ashton was found guilty of murder in the first degree at Jacksonville, Wis., the crime charged being the murder of Mrs. Daniel Stone. Mrs. Stone, the wife of his aged uncle, was the one person who stood between him and the possession of a big estate. The district attorney said that Ashton knew that the malevolence he had shown toward Mrs. Stone might react upon him any time and the will in his favor be broken.

NEWS FROM ABROAD.

The Princess of Wales is said to be insane. This is the true reason for her retirement from society. Grief over the death of her son, the Duke of Clarence, weakened her mind.

A reconciliation has been effected between Emperor William and Prince Bismarck. The exchancellor received a great ovation on his arrival in Berlin, where he is now visiting the emperor.

President Zelaya of Nicaragua says concerning the building of the canal that he still gives the preference to Americans, but if sufficient capital to finish the undertaking cannot be raised in the United States the canal must be built by those who can furnish the money.

GOVERNMENTAL GOSSIP.

A. T. Drummond, chief of the secret service, has been dismissed.

"Boss" Crocker of Tammany is in Washington fighting the income tax bill.

The president has nominated Wheeler H. Peckham of New York to be associate justice of the supreme court.

Senator Hill takes the nomination of Peckham to the supreme court bench as a personal affront, and is confident that he will secure the rejection of the nomination.

In the course of the Hawaiian debate in the senate Senator Cullom made a bitter and sarcastic attack on the administration, arraigning its policy as blundering, unpatriotic and bringing shame to the nation, and declaring the provisional government would have been justified in treating Blount as Benedict Arnold was treated.

Mrs. J. H. Horsnyder, 132 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes:

"When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, on doing so, my hair and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

Began to Grow,

"After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in combfulls. I used two bottles of and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."—Mrs. Sidney Carr, 1460 Regina st., Harrisburg, Pa.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years and always obtained satisfactory results. I know it is the best preparation for the hair that is made."—C. T. Arnett, Mammoth Spring, Ark.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower

is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a Dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing Tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

☞ Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which, feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 6 for $5.00. Soap, 50c. per jar; 6 for $2.50.
