For Sheriff, Medford, Oregon, May 21, 1904.

To the Voters of Jackson County, Oregon, May 21, 1904.

When I announced myself, some time ago, before you as candidate for the office of Sheriff, it was not to fight any party for or against, but to do a political duty.

I simply asked if for myself, not to quit the stock business, but to help further the stock and any other interests of the general public.

TULA-WATER. It gives a beautiful complexion. It is a liberal and a good skin medicine.

WANTED-Pushing Cheesemakers of good address. Liberal salary and extensive prospects. Permanent position. BROWN BROS., 200 N. Market, Portland, Oregon.

NEWS OF THE CITY.

Y. R. and F. H. Parks, representing a San Francisco house, are canvassing the county herabouts taking orders for groceries, which, we learn, they advertise to sell at wholesale prices.

You will be wanting some crockery, perhaps, this spring. Baby has probably broken a number of pieces during the winter; perhaps your kitchen help and the policeman have been working up a trade for the crockeryman.

The early day residents of Medford will remember well Rev. A. M. Russell, the Baptist clergyman through whose efforts the present church was built in Medford, about nine years ago.

The sermon was preached by Rev. A. M. Russell of Hamilton-square Church in San Francisco from a text in the Bible: "The Lord gave the word and great was the company that published it."

"Discount" is a word that catches all eyes. When these eyes have seen our great woolen goods and you learn of our 25 per cent discount we will catch the buyers.

The Medford candy factory, Zahn & Fry producers, is doing a splendid business. In the language of Mr. Zahn, "The Dutehman is satisfied."

Warm weather is very close to us. You will undoubtedly need some ice. Curry & Johnson are agents for the Medford ice.

If Medford parents could see and hear their children as others do there would be less boisterous conduct at public entertainments in the opera house.

Dr. Geary has made the purchase, Mitchell, Lewis & Slaver, of a fine Corvallis Concord spring carriage.

The Rackety is the place to get men's and boys' trousers or working shirts that are well made, extra long and full value.

S Hoffman, the gentleman who has recently opened a clothes dyeing and cleaning establishment at Front street, in receipt of a curio from Jerusalem.
