WASHINGTON NOTES.

Interesting Items Picked Out from the Daily Diaries. The silver men in the senate propose to harass both Democrats and Republicans at the coming session. This is admitted by Senator Stewart, who does not anticipate being able to do more than stir up trouble while President Cleveland is in power.

It is rumored that Admiral Walker's part of the situation in Hawaii very much displeased the president, and caused him to ask the secretary of the navy to change the orders assigning the admiral to the position of superintendent of the naval academy which Walker so much desired.

Representative Bellamy Storer of the committee on foreign affairs, who has introduced a resolution to inquire into the action of Secretary Gresham in suggesting to China and Japan that this country will act as mediator in the settlement of the present war.

Miss Mand Schermerhorn, a dining-room girl employed in the Patterson house at Harper, Kan., performed an act of bravery during the burning of the hotel which many men would have hesitated to perform.

English corduroy and bedford cords are still very popular fabrics. There is a great display of flowered and satin striped moires designed for elegant winter gowns.

It is still observed that at all dress entertainments the low slippers or French sandals more frequently match the gloves in color than the gown.

The Earl of Clarendon wrote his famous historical works while in exile and prison and wrote the famous 'Paraphrases of the Psalms.'

It may do as much for you. Mr. Fred Miller of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pain in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures but without any good result.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested, and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

The city council of Los Angeles has adopted a revised city charter, which will be presented to the legislature for adoption. The large Canadian Pacific Cement works at Vancouver, B. C., has started up. They have a capacity of 600 barrels a week.

C. D. Rand, president of the Burrard Inlet and Fraser Valley Railway company, denies the truth of the rumor that an English company has purchased its rights. While the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williscroft of Steena River was playing with a companion, a loaded gun in the room fell and was discharged, blowing the top of the child's head off.

Bank Examiner Wightman has made his report to the controller of the treasury at Washington on the condition of the First National bank at San Bernardino. The report has not been made public, but official sources state the condition of the bank was found to be favorable, and if justly managed the bank will not only pay depositors, but will leave the capital unimpaired.

It is stated that the Oregon Railway and Navigation company will re-establish the steamship line between Portland and Puget Sound, touching at British Columbia points. The steamer Elder on her return from a trip to San Francisco will probably be put permanently and regularly on the Portland-Puget Sound run.

The public schools of Portland which have been closed for two years without interruption by the authorities have been completely closed as the result of a strike by the teachers.

A pathetic case was heard in the superior court at San Jose recently. K. S. Thomas and Nancy E. Thomas were married in the early eighties, and in 1888 a daughter, Pearl, was born to them. But the happiness of the couple was not destined to last, and in 1890 Thomas secured a divorce from his wife on statutory grounds.

PERSONAL.

Senator Bruce of Ohio prophesies that Vice President Stevenson will be the next Democratic nominee for the presidency. Mrs. Anna B. Williams of Chicago was rejected for membership in the Woman's club because she is an octonary.

The members of the national W. C. T. U. in session at Cleveland, O., are very angry at Mrs. Grover Cleveland. At the recent Pennsylvania convention the delegates adopted a resolution petitioning the wife of the president to use a bottle of water instead of wine at the christening of the new steamer St. Louis in Philadelphia on Nov. 12.

There is some talk of a call being extended to the Rev. Dr. Talmage by the consistory of the First Reformed church, Brooklyn. The pulpit is now occupied by the Rev. A. W. Miller, who has been requested by the members of the consistory to resign. The church is one of the largest in the Eastern district and is entirely free from debt.

A conference of the American Bi-metallic league has been called to meet at St. Louis Nov. 27. The annual convention of the California Miners' association is in session at San Francisco.

The twenty-first annual convention of the national W. C. T. U. is in session at Cleveland, O. H. P. Cornelia, barkeeper of a way-side saloon near Sacramento, was shot and killed by a masked robber a few days ago.

Nearly 100 people were killed by the recent earthquakes in Italy. Six persons are in a critical condition at East Liverpool, Ohio, from the effects of an aquatic neuralgia gas at the Methodist church during services.

It has been discovered that spoiled and refuse fish are being sent from Fresno in bags, by tons at a time, to parties in San Francisco. A fish packer at Fresno says that part of the stuff that is also included in the shipment is packed in San Francisco and sold at low prices, while the remainder is converted into 'fig paste' and sold to confectioners, etc.

James W. Payne, a prominent citizen of Los Angeles and a contractor of cereal supplies for the United States military posts west of the Mississippi river, was arrested at Denver on a charge of embezzlement and felony. The specific charge against Payne is embezzlement of money received on account of his contract from the chief quartermaster of the department of the Colorado, Major E. B. Atwood, with intent to defraud his bondsmen.
