The Doings of the Busiest City in the Rogue River Valley—All the News Once a Week.

—It was upon Wednesday evening of this week that a special train came over from Jacksonville, the why-ness of this special run was to bring over from Jacksonville about twenty members of the A. O. U. W. order of that city, who came over for the purpose of installing officers in the Medford lodge of the same order. District Deputy Grand Master Wm. Colvig appointed several members of the Jacksonville lodge as grand officers and proceeded to install officers. Those installed were: E. W. Carder, M. W.; D. T. Lawton, foreman; C. O. Damon, overseer; J. W. Lawton, recorder; C. Strang, financier; W. I. Vawter, receiver; A. C. Nicholson, guide; C. W. Wolters, inside guard; Wm. Churchman, outside guard. After this work had been completed there were speeches made by nearly all members present from Jacksonville, including Attorney Colvig, and Attorneys Vawter and Parker of this city. When this was through with a luncheon of cake, sandwiches and coffee was served to which all did credit—both to luncheon and themselves. Following this was an hour or more given to the recital of stories and a pleasant talk in general. At eleven thirty they left the hall, each and every one with a feeling of satisfaction, because of being a Workman and because of the pleasant associates that make it the grand institution it is.

—Who has that key? You may begin trying Monday morning, but don't all come at once. If you have the right one no one else can get the money. The money will be kept for you until you are ready to come after it. We will give notice when the lucky man is found. Thompson & Meeker.

—Last Friday evening was the date fixed for one of those very pleasant social gatherings which the Epworth league have gotten into the habit of giving of late, and the place fixed for the last meeting was at the fine home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Johnson, on south C Street. There were about forty-five or fifty people present and a splendid time was enjoyed by all. The early evening was spent in so-called amusements followed by a session of right pleasant conversation, and immediately following this was a splendid luncheon. A few hours more was spent in having a general good time and the party broke up with many kind words tendered to the host and hostess for the evening's pleasure. The receipts of the evening were about $5, which amount will be given the M. E. church to be used toward the purchase of a church carpet. One especially amusing feature was that of Mr. Johnson with his arms full of clay pipes passing among the ladies distributing pipes, but as the "terbacker" that old "terbacker" box, didn't follow, the ladies recovered from their shock—and smoked soap bubbles from clay pipes.

—Horse shoeing $1.50 per horse, and all other blacksmithing reasonable. C. W. Milton, shop opposite Davis' flouring mill, Medford.

—A meeting of the trustees and officers of the Southern Oregon District Agricultural society met at Ashland Monday, elected officers, and formulated plans of meeting in fair weather for 1895. T. E. Hill was re-elected president; Dr. DeBarr, vice-president; John Downing, secretary; J. W. Merritt, treasurer. The board decided to offer ten per cent. of gate and grand stand receipts for use of fair grounds. They also decided to raise the premium list and as well added materially to the stock list. The meeting was adjourned to meet at Central Point on February 16th, at 10 o'clock p. m. This next meeting will be for the purpose of definitely arranging a program for the next fair and to decide upon a date for holding same, also for arranging all other matters which will tend to make the event the success they now picture it will be. At the Ashland meeting it was decided to reduce the salary of secretary to $100 per year and he to provide his own assistant.

—Try the Opera House cigar and tobacco store, next door to Lawton's harness shop, for fresh candy, fruits, etc. A fine line of tobacco and cigars.

—Register Veatch and Receiver Sheridan of the Roseburg land office have decided the land case wherein Dr. W. B. Officer, of Eagle Point, is protestant and Dan'l I. Waldrop, of Medford, is claimant. The complete findings in the case we had hoped to be able to print, but as they cover six pages and closely written with a typewriter, we are obliged to cut down to only a brief mention of the summing up which is to the effect that the protest of Officer be dismissed and that the proof of Waldrop be accepted. We have not learned of the fate of Hon. M. S. Crowell and his son, H. M. Crowell, whose proofs were contested at the same time by W. A. Forbes and Wright. Later the two latter cases were also decided favorable to the claimants, the Messrs. Crowell. We will endeavor to print extracts from the findings next week.

—Capt. A. C. Smith, of Phoenix, who rented his farm last fall and hid himself to Colorado, writes that the snow is two feet deep there and the weather is cold, somewhat—says if he had not rented his farm he would be back within a space of time equal to that required to get here. It is the same old story told by many a man who wanders from his pleasant surroundings to the reported green pastures of another clime. The man who hopes to better his conditions financially, or in general comfort, by leaving the Rogue river valley, is hugging a delusion that will ere many months, if followed up, leave him at sea in adversities without a rudder to steer his safe return to our haven land. Mr. Smith's return to the Rogue river valley cannot be too soon to suit his many friends.

—There should always be displayed a great amount of caution in starting fires in the streets, alleys or vacant lots of our city, but particularly should our people be cautious when there is a wind blowing. A pile of papers set on fire only burns off the top few inches unless stirred and the blaze given a draft. If left unattended to, the smoldering embers are liable to start again when all are sleeping and serious loss may result. Last week a number of fires were started in the streets when a stiff wind was blowing, and had it not been that rain was falling at the time there would have been work for the fire company, but even at such a time the flying embers are liable to be blown into some dry hay or wood shed. Don't build a fire outdoors when the wind is blowing. It isn't safe anyway you can fix it.

—Are you going to get some trees this winter? If so, you had better get them at the Medford Nursery. Trees are as cheap there as anywhere.

—Deputy District Grand Master Helen Strang, assisted by Kattie Webb, as grand marshal, Bessie Webb, as grand warden, I. Woolf, as grand secretary, and I. A. Webb, as grand financial secretary, installed the following officers in the Olive Rebekah lodge in this city, Tuesday evening of this week: Della Pickel, N. G.; Myrtle Woodford, V. G.; Mrs. M. Ingledue, R. S.; Nannie Woolf, P. S.; Mamie Nicholson, W.; Helen Strang, C.; Bertha Langley, I. G.; Retta Priddy, O. G.; Dora Young, Chap.; Mrs. I. A. Webb, R. S. N. G.; Cassie Nicholson, L. S. N. G.; Bessie Webb, R. S. V. G.; Ella Perdue, L. S. N. G. Miss Laura Webb was elected treasurer, but was not installed because of a shyness in blank bonds upon which she is required to qualify. She will be installed at the next meeting.

—"Snow Flake" baking powder is as good as the best—and you get half as much more for your money—Wolters sells it.

—On January 6th Willie DeRoboam, the fourteen-year-old son of Emil DeRoboam, of Jacksonville, was taken with acute appendicitis, which gradually grew worse until Friday of last week, when an appendicular abscess was diagnosed with a general septic peritonitis, and as a last ray of hope for the recovery of the boy a laparotomy (opening of the abdominal cavity) was decided upon and at once performed by Dr. Geary, of this city, assisted by Drs. Pickel, of Medford, and DeBarr, of Jacksonville, and a great amount of pus of an offensive odor was removed. The boy is now doing finely and will in all probability entirely recover. The terms used in the above are not found in our vocabulary, but Dr. Pickel states positively that that was the boy's trouble. However, he was very sick, and nothing short of the very best of surgical skill saved his life.

—W.D. Beidlemann, the harnessmaker, will take grain or hay in exchange for harness repair work—all work reasonable in price.

—Some few weeks ago a Mrs. Lewis and her son arrived in Grants Pass from Yaquina bay. From Grants Pass Mrs. Lewis took the train for Ashland, leaving the son to follow with team. After waiting in Ashland ten days for his arrival there, she became uneasy as to his whereabouts, and Monday evening she came to Medford in search for him. Upon arriving here she engaged lodging at the Clarendon hotel, but as she could converse only in her native tongue—German—the services of A. Fetsch, the tailor, were solicited as an interpreter, and through him it was learned that the lady's son had $200 with him when she left him at Grants Pass and by his not appearing at Ashland in due season she suspected he had been foully dealt with.

—Clothing at greatly reduced prices, at Thompson & Meeker's, to make room for spring goods—Mammoth stock coming, keep your eye peeled.

—Monday evening's freight brought five carloads of salt to Medford. One of these was taken to Jacksonville, two of them were unloaded at the Southern Oregon Packing company's place of business, one was for C. W. Wolters, and one for Cranfl & Hutchison. This immediate locality consumes a great amount of this article. It was only a very few months ago that something like six or seven carloads were unloaded in Medford. There is unquestionably a great amount of meat packed at this point and no better evidence as to the vastness of the amount is needed than a mention of the amount of salt used.

—The stamped Cuban Blossom cigar for 5 cts., at Opera House cigar and tobacco store, next to Lawton's harness shop.

—Messrs. Mounce & Schermerhorn, wholesale and retail confectioners, have dissolved partnership, I. A. Mounce continuing the business and G. L. Schermerhorn retiring. These young men have been residents of Medford only about a year, but they have made many friends and built up a splendid business which will undoubtedly continue in its prosperous condition under the individual management of Mr. Mounce. Mr. Schermerhorn has not decided as yet what business he will engage in, but his friends are suggesting many ways and means for him that will insure his remaining with us.

—Buckingham & Hecht's boots and shoes, as everybody knows, are the best. Sold only by Thompson & Meeker.

—Indications right now seem to favor a slight rise in the stock market. Last Saturday John Wyland, of Antelope, drove a band of twelve head of mixed cattle to Ashland where they were sold to the Union Meat company, of Portland, for two cents per pound. Considering that this band was mixed—cows and steers—and considering further that one and a half cents has been the price paid in the valley for many head of cattle during the fall and winter, the indications for better prices are not only prospective but are actual.

—Men's heavy oil grain shoes for $1.25, also women's heavy grain and satin oil shoes for $1.00, at Thompson & Meeker's.

—A party, Milne by name, has been visiting several towns north of us, representing to be an advance agent for the Calhoun Opera company, which has been playing in Portland. He would put in a few days in a town, selling tickets and securing a guarantee, stating that his company would not play without a sufficient guarantee. It now transpires that this company has no representation on this road, and this man was an impostor. It is said that he secured several dollars in this manner.

—Rev. T. H. Stephens, he who was pastor of the Baptist church in Medford, has accepted a pastorate in the Baptist church at Chico, Calif. Mr. Stephens in a letter to THE MAIL, states that Chico is in Butte county, about 100 miles from Sacramento, is a beautiful city and has a population of over 6000. The reverend gentleman's friends in Medford will be pleased to learn of his good fortune, and none of them wish him greater success than does this paper.

—Mrs. P. Stewart's dressmaking parlors, in Halley block. Ladies are invited to call.

—Messrs. Tyler & Miser have purchased the Wirth photograph gallery in Medford and are now turning themselves loose in executing a great amount of very fine work. These gentlemen are both first-class artists and they promise the patrons of the gallery nothing but the best of work, at reasonable prices. A special feature with them will be promptness in the delivery of work—always when promised.

—Miners and drivers—Callat Thompson & Meeker's and see those Henderson prospecting boots and shoes.

—A great many Medford people noticed a bright fire burning up in the mountains south and east of Medford on Sunday evening week. It has since been learned that the conflagration was that of a dwelling house belonging to Emmet Beeson and occupied by Chas. Brophy and two sons. The fire caught from a stove pipe. All household effects except a few heavy articles were removed. Loss $850, no insurance.

—Hot cakes with Log Cabin syrup dressing, is an article just suited for a morning meal. Wolters sells the syrup.

—J. A. Whitman shipped a carload of apples to El Paso, Texas, Tuesday of this week. There don't seem to be any good reason for anyone asserting that Mr. Whitman is not reaching out for distant markets. Mr. W. is gathering in apples from many points in the valley, which will be re-packed and made ready for later shipments. He bought one carload in Ashland and one in Gold Hill this week.

—Go to Smith's candy palace; pay 25 cents; get a standard novel; read it and return it with 10 cents and make another selection.

—T. K. Roberts is out in the country this week doing a little missionary work—soliciting—for THE MAIL. Any courtesy shown him by our friends will be fully appreciated by the publishers of this sheet. If he don't treat you right, report the case to us and we'll fix him plenty. If he does treat you square and right why not do himself, yourself and ourselves a favor—by subscribing for THE MAIL.

—I have a quantity of good shakes which I will sell cheaper than anyone in Medford. Inquire at the Big T store.

—The Junior Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church will give a dime social at the home of Mrs. Paris, on Tuesday evening of next week, January 22. A program is being prepared—and refreshments will be served—and a good time promised to everybody who can get away from home affairs long enough to attend—and all for ten cents.

—A full line of fresh groceries at Wilson's new grocery, McAndrews building—sign of the big T.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Galloway entertained the whist club upon Friday evening of last week, and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lippincott on Thursday evening of this week. At both places the guests were well entertained and a general good time was enjoyed. These whist parties are a means of whiling away the long winter evenings very pleasantly.

—The Gents' and ladies' racintoshes have arrived! Make your selections now, Angle & Plymale.

—C. S. Smith has moved his Candy Palace and circulating library from the Barnum building to the Stanley brick building on south C Street, where he has fitted rooms up very tastily and has in stock a fine line of candies, nuts and cigars and tobacco. The gentleman will move his family in the Gore building, corner C and Ninth streets next week.

—Dress goods! Dress goods and trimmings! You ought to see them at Angle & Plymale's.

—W. H. Rumley, who is now stopping at the Clarendon, in this city, has purchased thirty head of horses which he will take to his range and mines on Elliott creek as soon as the snow in the mountains will permit. Mr. R. has extensive placer mining interests in the Elliott creek district which are being worked quite extensively at present.

—Largest stock of fall and winter clothing in the valley at Angle & Plymale's.

—The rooms vacated this week by Smith's Candy Palace, in the Barnum block, have been leased by Deuel & Stevens. These rooms adjoin the building now occupied by this firm and 'tis their intention to have a large archway built in the wall between and use the addition for a house furnishings, carpets, clothing and lace department.

—Ladies' Misses' and children's cloaks. Prices can't be beat—Angle & Plymale.

—T. F. West sold this week, to A. N. Sayre, lots 1, 2 and 3, block 3, West's addition to Medford, consideration, $283. Mr. Sayre expects to build a fence around the lots and a little later will build a residence—sort of build up a snug little home, just like whole lots of other people are doing in this blooming city of ours.

—Wolters keeps the very best of everything in his line.

—Charlie Wolters represents a larger lump of good nature three times than ordinarily—and all this because his big boy baby is getting along nicely and promises to live many years to make glad the Wolters household with its childlike prattle, and be a joy and pride to the parents in later years.

—Angle & Plymale's standard calf school shoe is a wearer. Try it.

—Maitland Biden, brother-in-law of A. C. Taylor, has taken a position as apprentice in Mr. Taylor's shoe shop. The young man will doubtless prove himself an apt student, but there is one thing positive—when A. C. gets through with him he'll be a shoemaker, all right, all right.

—Joe Shone and his planing mill are doing a splendid business these times. He has the mill thoroughly renovated and is turning out some excellent work. His efforts will be to etain all work, such as the manufacture of sash, doors and house trimmings, in Medford.

—One pair 10-4 blankets at Angle & Plymale's for 90 cents.

—Frank Wilson's Vienna bakery is taking on more metropolitan shops each day. New counters and showcases have been added, while the display of bake stuffs thereabouts would tempt the most dyspeptic of the land to partake.

—Demorest, the dentist—opera block, Medford.

—Prof. E. P. Hughes, residing east of Phoenix, is establishing writing schools at various points throughout the valley. He has a class at Talent and on Monday evening of this week gave them their first lesson.

—Something new at Smith's candy palace. A circulating library.

—M. Purdin—"You say it's a new fad to leave points—periods and commas—off of job printing? Nothing new about it at all; I never used any. It saves time and a whole lot of uncertainty to not use them."

—There is no discount on the quality of goods bought at Wolters'.

—Lumber has been placed on the ground on South C-street for that new sidewalk. Verily, when we Medford people do things in the line of improvements we get right in and do them—and that settles it.

—Eggs wanted—at the Big T grocery store, Medford, Oregon.

—The offices fitted up for Architect Bennet, in the Hamlin block, are models of beauty, grandeur and neatness. The Murray boys did some of their best work on this job.

—Staple and fancy goods at the Big T grocery.

—The electric light in the room of an Osage county, N. J., juror having gone out, he spent half an hour in a vain effort to relight it with a match.

—Ladies union suits 55 cents at the Fair store.

—Rev. Wilson will hold divine services, Wednesday evening, Jan. 23, 1895, in the Episcopal church.

—Making Different Arrangements.

We are glad to inform our patrons that we have secured the rooms next east of us, and will connect these rooms with our present room, with an archway. This will give us the largest store room in the Rogue river valley; and now that we have the room we will crowd it to its utmost capacity, with bargains and novelties never before seen in this valley. Remember we are straight business. One low cash price to all. We have no lottery or gift enterprise in connection with our business, but will make your cash go further than any house of our kind on the coast. Respectfully,

DEUEL & STEVENS.

—Saxony yarn 8 and 10 cents a skein at the Fair.

—For Exchange, Trade or Sale.

Farm properties, east or west; town properties, east or west. Strike quick while the iron is hot. Call at this office.

—Our new hired man went out to the Medford Business college yesterday, in quest of more light regarding that growing and important factor of Medford's make-up, and this is the copy he hands in: Prof. Rigby was at the helm and his ship of learning was gliding peacefully through the tranquil waters of progress. He is now surrounded by over forty active, earnest, industrious, orderly pupils. The school is growing rapidly. Last week there was an increase of ten new pupils, as follows: Misses Ella Phipps, Myrtle Lawton, Belle Norton, and Messrs. David Phipps, Rydal Bradbury, Willie Craven, Press Phipps, Jr., Marion Lute, Guy Childers, all of Medford, and Roy E. Diamond, of Central Point. Another large addition will be made next week from various parts of Jackson county.

Ivy Poisoning

Eight Years of Suffering

Perfect Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla
"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."
"Dear Sirs:—We have tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it to be all you claim for it. My wife was poisoned by Ivy when a young woman, and for eight years was troubled every season with the breaking out and terrible itching and burning. I thought hers was as bad a case as anyone ever had. She was in this distressing condition every year until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has effected a perfect cure, without leaving any scars, and she has had No Sign of the Poison Since.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

She is well and hearty. I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla after the grip with good results, and have also given it to our four children. We are all pictures of perfect health and owe it to Hood's Sarsaparilla." J. C. FREEMAN, Vandalia, Illinois.

B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other instead. Hood's Pills are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c. per box.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. W. J. PLYMALE left Monday for Salem.

—J. B. BENNETT was up Ashland way Monday upon business.

—ROBT. WATSON, of Missoula, Montana, is here looking for a farm location.

—JOHN HAY and M. FLIPPEN, of Gold Hill were in the metropolis this week—business.

—J. A. WHITESIDE left for Salem Saturday night, to remain during the legislative session.

—Mrs. B. P. THEISS was at Central Point Wednesday evening upon a visit to P. W. Olwell and family.

—A. O. ROBBINS, of Ogden, Utah, arrived in Medford last week. He is here looking for a farm location.

—G. M. PREICE, of Little Applegate came over Tuesday to lay in a supply of provisions for his mining camp.

—W. J. BENNETT and family arrived in Medford Sunday, and they are now housekeeping in the Halley block.

—Mr. and Mrs. DAVID WORDEN, of Applegate, were in Medford this week visiting their son-in-law, E. I. Koup.

—E. O. HILDRETH, of Ashland, was here last week and met with the order of Mackabees, of which order he is state organizer.

—Mrs. J. W. JACOBS and daughter, of Central Point, were Medford visitors last Monday, as was also Mrs. HOOKSEY, of the same place.

—Miss N. NAYLOR returned Monday morning from a four months' visit at Salem. Upon her return she stopped at Grants Pass for a brief visit with friends.

—W. H. AMES, proprietor of the Palace hotel in Grants Pass, was here this week visiting his old friends—and making new ones for himself and the Palace.

—C. DOW, of Kent, Washington, and a brother-in-law of Merchant A. N. Berlin, arrived in Medford last week and will probably make this city his future home.

—H. G. MEYER, a sturdy and thrifty rancher and stock grower of Lake creek, was in Medford last week, bringing with him some of the products of his stock range.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. PANKEY and Miss DORA GALL, of Sams Valley, were Medford visitors Wednesday, the former purchasing supplies and the latter having dental work performed.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. AUSTIN, of Austin, Oregon, arrived in Medford yesterday morning and will visit for a few weeks with Wm. Edwards and family. Mrs. Austin is a daughter of Mr. Edwards.

—Miss EDITH M. DAY, the talented young authoress, who has been visiting for several weeks in Medford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sutter, left Friday morning for San Francisco.

—A. J. FRADENBERG left Medford last week for a trip through western and southern California. During his absence Mrs. Fradenberg is visiting friends at Central Point and Sams valley.

—Mrs. C. F. LEWIS came over from Jacksonville Wednesday to visit for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crystal. Mr. Crystal, we are sorry to learn, is quite ill with a severe cold and heart trouble.

—Mr. and Mrs. JOHN BROWN and daughter, Miss ELLA, from the Willow Springs mining district, were in Medford Tuesday on a trading expedition—and partook of the sumptuous dinner fare at our friend John Hardin's place.

—E. T. ROUP, he who was here last year with his family, from Wallawa county, dropped in on his Medford friends Friday for a few days' visit. He is still seeking for health and will try several California points during the coming few months.

—J. A. DOUGAN and family, of Hornbrook, California, arrived in Medford Monday evening. These people will occupy Wm. Rummel's new residence, south C Street, as soon as it is finished.

They will remain here until spring, at least, and perhaps for all time.

—H. S. BLAISDELL, of Portland, who has been stopping hereabouts for the past month, has about decided to purchase farm property near Medford and be one of us from now on. His family is at Seattle but they, too, will be here pretty soon.

—ALEX. OLMES, of Bolt, and ED. SHEFFLIN, a gentleman interested quite heavily in Foots creek mining, were in Medford Tuesday. Mr. Shefflin is one of the gentlemen who discovered the great Tombstone mine in Arizona and which proved so immensely rich.

—E. S. RIGBY, father of Prof. Rigby, was called to his home in Glendive, Montana, by news of the serious illness of his wife at that place. Before leaving Mr. Rigby stated that it was his intention to sell his real estate at Glendive and move to Medford in early spring. He left Monday evening.

—G. W. BOGGS came up from his Josephine county mine this week and is now over at the Elliott creek property. Mr. B. is getting himself pretty thoroughly mixed up in southern Oregon mines, but as he is a gentleman of means and a practical man all 'round, we people give him a hearty welcome.

—MORT LINDLEY, of the Lucky Bart mine at Gold Hill, has been in Medford off and on for the past several days—as a matter of fact the gentleman declares he is anchored here permanently, but his friends here don't hope for anything quite as good as that. Mr. Lindley left yesterday morning for Sacramento, to be absent about a month.

—DAN'L FISHER, of Roseburg, and draftsman for Architect W. J. Bennet, arrived in Medford Saturday and will make this his home for a period of time not mentioned. Mr. Fisher is a splendid appearing young man and is backed by recommendations from the best people of Roseburg as being straight and honorable. THE MAIL bids him welcome.

—J. C. ELDER and daughter, Miss GRACE, left Medford last Friday for Waldo, Josephine county, where they will reside permanently in the future. Mr. Elder, being the possessor of a good farm in that locality. Isaac Elder, a son of J. C., came in Thursday with teams and wagons to convey the household effects to the farm. Every body in Medford is a friend to these people and all will wish them success in their new home.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. COYLE left Wednesday evening for Walla Walla, Washington, where they expect to reside permanently, provided the climate agrees with their health. Their son, J. H. Coyle, who was in Medford a few weeks ago, has located at the above place and is engaged in the milling business. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coyle have a great many friends in this city who will regret their departure but will wish them abundance of all the goods of the earth any place they may go.

—Among the new ads this week will be found one from the Central Point Nursery. This nursery has an unusually fine, large stock of trees of standard varieties and free from insects. Freight paid to any point in Southern Oregon. The ad of W. J. Bennet, the architect, also appears. Mr. B. is prepared to make plans for, and superintend all work in the general constructive line.

—C. O. White, the gentleman who a short time ago purchased the McDungal placer mine, near Toio, was in Medford Wednesday purchasing a great amount of provisions and implements for his mining camp. He is putting in extensive mining machinery at the mine, among which is a pump for use in pumping water from Rogue river to the mine, where it is to be used for hydraulic mining.
