

OUR COUNTY . . . Correspondents

Eagle Point Eaglets.

BY A. C. HOWLETT.

Mr. Hub has moved into the John Daley house.

Geo. Morine has gone to Apple-gate on a mining trip.

G. L. Shermerhorn and wife were here the first of the week.

Mrs. A. Pool is reported on the sick list last week by Dr. Officer.

Sunday evening last Dr. Officer was called to see S. A. Carlton's child.

Geo. Morine has moved into the house formerly occupied by Dr. Stanfield.

Rev. John Wood has moved into the house formerly occupied by Geo. Morine.

John Daley and family were visiting some of their many friends here last week.

Miss Lillie Temple closed her school in the Antelope district on Friday of last week.

James Wiley, of Ashland, was in this neighborhood last week looking after his father's interests.

Rev. L. I. Grover, who has been engaged in mining near Steamboat, returned the first of last week.

Mr. Martin and married sister and brother-in-law passed through town Saturday on their way to the old Katerer place to visit their father.

Before Dr. Stanfield's moved from here a social party was given them at Geo. Morine's residence, the same being given on Tuesday of last week.

On Thursday of last week Geo. Brown, A. J. Daley and Mrs. M. A. Taylor went to Round Top to look up a tract of land belonging to the late H. C. Taylor.

On Tuesday of this week Roscoe and George Potter, Mr. Frost and Mr. Alstrom, of Ashland, were here on a fishing excursion. They secured one hundred fine trout.

Miss Daisy Stanfield, who was seriously injured some time ago by falling from her horse, met with a similar accident last Thursday, but did not receive any serious injury this time.

Syman Adams and family came in from Klamath county on Tuesday of last week, accompanied by Mrs. Adams' father. They will go to Medford, while here, to secure their winter's supplies.

Mrs. A. M. Thomas and Miss Ella Pool started for their home in Klamath county on Wednesday of last week, and before they started Miss Ella, who was a constant reader of THE MAIL while here, subscribed for the paper as she wanted to watch the Eagle Point Eaglets fly, and she said that she knew that they would fly from the office of THE MAIL every Friday morning and that she would learn all the news from this part of the country and have the best paper in Southern Oregon besides.

On Tuesday of last week the writer had business in Ashland, and while on the way there met Thomas Culbertson and wife, nee Mary Wiley, on their way to the Butte creek country to visit relatives. They have been putting up fruit at Ashland, and on their return went to Medford to lay in their supplies of drygoods and groceries. They had the Ashland prices and the Medford prices, which explains why they came to Medford to trade. On the back trip several trains were met, all drawing loads and driven by Indians. They had been to Medford for supplies and were returning to Klamath county.

Table Rock Items.

E. P. Pickens has finished hauling grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen made a visit to Central Point Monday.

Lee and John Vincent have been hauling wood to the Medford market lately.

Miss Hemphill, of Stockton, California, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. Martin at Antioch.

Mr. and Mrs. Cronemiller, of Ft. Klamath, spent Saturday night with Table Rock friends.

Wm. Bybee Jr., brought a large band of sheep from their mountain range Friday, he now has them on Mr. Frierson's farm.

Scott Griffin, of Tolo, will ship several car loads of potatoes to California soon. Rogue river spuds seem to be in demand.

Mr. Middlebush and family, of Kansas, will occupy the Johnson home and run the ranch. Mrs. M. is a sister of Mrs. Lee Vincent.

Miss Clara Hansen has returned from several days' visit with friends in Ashland. Emil is also at home and has been quite sick for some time.

Fraak Bybee has some fine beef cattle on alfalfa pasture here, he will soon put them up to feed, and will crowd them until they are prime beef.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dickinson spent four days of last week on Trail creek. Mr. Dickinson had the proud satisfaction of bringing down the first deer he saw.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson and family left their Table Rock ranch Tuesday to make their home in Medford. Though strictly home people, the thought that Mr. and Mrs. J. O. are no longer among us brings a feeling of regret.

Miss Clements, of Central Point, closed the second week of her term with literary and musical exercises, the children doing wonderfully well considering the short time they had been trained. The following is the program:

A family from Eastern Oregon came out in our neighborhood last week and have concluded to remain on Mr. Gray's place during the winter. We are unable to give their name at this writing.

Mr. J. H. Clark, of Tehachapi, California, has been visiting old friends and school-mates here the past two weeks. He formerly resided in this valley, his father owning a farm near Jacksonville. Selling out here they moved to Fresno, California, and purchased a farm which he sold again going to Kern county, and there invested largely in real estate, and died there some seven years ago. His two sons have since followed in their father's footsteps and are now numbered among Kern county's most prosperous farmers.

Asbestos Items.

BY RUBIE.

A. L. Wooley and wife have gone to Medford for winter supplies.

Mrs. Frank Davis has returned from her eastern visit and Frank is happy now.

H. H. Mitchell is moving his house and rebuilding a larger and more substantial one.

Henry Griner is remodeling his house, building new porches, a 12x16 kitchen and wood shed, and all will look quite nobby when done.

L. C. Bowle is finishing up his house by putting on new siding and building porches. He expects to build a large barn this fall.

The woods are full of hunters from the valley, all of whom seem to be quite successful in bringing in large game in the way of deer and bear.

John Thompkins has returned for the third time, and says he has come back to stay. He has been pretty well over the states of Washington and California and concludes that he has been able to find nothing ahead of Southern Oregon.

Pulled his gun through the fence wrong end first is what Uncle Billy Forestry did one day last week, and on account of which he received a very close call. The ball grazed his side cutting a flesh wound about four inches in length.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lynch made a trip to Medford last week. Mrs. Lynch has accepted a position as teacher of the preparatory department of the Medford Business college.

Mrs. Holtan and her two daughters Helen and Olena, have moved to Medford in order that the girls may attend the public school there. Henry will stay on the ranch and "batch" this winter.

Our postmaster, L. J. Marks, is laid up with a broken arm. He and Dan Foellers were unloading squashes. Dan threw a large one which accidentally hit Mr. Mark's right arm and broke it.

Thompson Creek Tailings.

Plowing and seeding time is here. Johnnie Knutzen is hunting bees. Three good bee-trees are the fruits of his labor.

Jake Knutzen has gone to Steamboat to make preparations to develop his mining claim on Palmer creek.

R. Hinkle and W. Mills is cleaning out the Major ditch. The gentlemen will mine on "Uncle Pete's" farm this winter.

Walter and Burrell Miller and Mark Armstrong, of Medford, left the creek this morning for the hills. They hope to obtain a number of deer. Walter has been very successful this season.

The 19th inst. was the twelfth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Knutzen's wedding day. It was also Mr. K's birthday. Their many friends saw a fitting time to invade the happy home and to their surprise they were called up to entertain the invaders, which they did right royally. Soon the "light fantastic toe" was tripping time to the merry strains of music which Charlie Gregg drew from his violin, while in the parlor the old folks made merry over the card table. At midnight a delicious luncheon was served but soon, alas! nothing but a satisfied air and empty dishes remained to tell of the ladies' triumphs in the cuisine. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Knutzen, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Sleezer, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gregg, Mrs. Wm. Pernoll, Mrs. B. Houston, Misses Florence Bolt, Emma Huffman, Lydia Pernoll, Jennie Knight, Bessie Huffman, Ida Knight, Will Clarkhuff, F. Knight, W. McDaniels, of Jacksonville, R. Culp, Jake Knutzen, J. S. Miller and Johnnie Knutzen.

ISTAMBOUL.

Thompson Creek, Oct. 21, '95.

S. CHILDERS' . . . FAIRVIEW ADDITION

Location of Land Lying but a few rods more than one mile to the east of

Medford, Oregon,

Amount of Land in Tract Is situated 160 acres of land which is especially adapted to Fruit Growing.

Now on the Market This land has recently been placed upon the market and is now offered for sale in tracts of from 2½ to 10 Acres.

commands an Excellent View of Medford The name, "Fairview," is given this property because, that being located as it is, on a slight eminence, a view of all parts of Medford and a good portion of the valley can be had from any part of the land. Nearly all of this land has been cleared and has been under cultivation for a number of years. The soil is of an exceptionally fine quality and its adaptability to fruit-growing has been proven. This land will be sold upon the Installment Plan.

How Payments may be Made Payments may be made at $1.25 per week, $5 per month or $15 every quarter, or a liberal discount will be made for all cash purchases.

Fruit and Fruit Culture The success attending fruit culture is no longer an experiment. By direct analysis the soil is found to contain all the elements required to produce fruits from the semi-tropical to the hardiest varieties. Over these favorable conditions hangs a climate co-ordinated and adjusted to the nature of the soil.
