

COUGHS and COLDS

ELY'S PINEOLA BALSAM is a sure Remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes, gently abates the cough, and renders expectoration easy.

Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their cases to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50 cts. per bottle; Pineola Balsam, 50c. Sold by Druggists.

ELY BROTHERS, 66 Warren St., New York.

FERRY'S SEEDS

Ask for them—get them, plant them. They are the standard seeds everywhere; sown by the largest planters in the world.

Whether you plant 50 square feet of ground or 50 acres, you should have Ferry's Seed Annual for '06. The most valuable book for farmers and gardeners ever given away. Mailed free.

Senator Perkins has introduced a bill appropriating $10,000 to erect a statue to Commodore John D. Sloat in Monterey, Cal. He has also presented to the senate a memorial from the Marine Engineers association of San Francisco urging the passage of Senator Squires' bill extending the facilities for educating engineers for the navy.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the American Forestry association convened in Washington last week. The main object was to secure the enactment of laws for the proper administration of the forest reserves of the United States which aggregate 17,564,800 acres, and to secure the protection of forests on public lands.

Prince Henry of Battenberg, husband of Princess Beatrice, youngest daughter of Queen Victoria, died of fever on a return voyage between the Cape coast and Sierra Leone, West Africa. Some time ago he left England with an expedition to fight against the Ashantee tribe.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness, indigestion, constipation. A small pill a prompt cure. Geo. H. Haskins, druggist.

Attorneys George H. Maxwell and Joseph H. Choate, representing the appellees in the case of the Fallbrook irrigation district, Southern California, against Maria King Bradley and others which involves the same constitutional question as the case of the Wright irrigation law of California, have filed their brief in the United States supreme court. These cases will be considered together by the court.

Piles of people have the piles, but DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve will cure them. It promptly applied it cures scalds and burns without the slightest pain. Geo. H. Haskins, druggist.

Kansas railroad commissioners have petitioned the general managers of the railroads in that state to reduce the rates on grain transportation.

An anti-lynching law passed by the South Carolina legislature provides that the relatives of a person lynched may secure exemplary damages in the sum of not less than $2,000 from the county in which the lynching occurs.

A rich gold region on Forty-mile creek, Alaska, belongs to the United States. This has been accurately determined by an employe of the British government, and General Duffield, chief of the United States coast survey, says the survey shows but sixteen miles of the creek as the crow flies, and twenty-three as the water flows, is in British territory, and in this portion no gold has been discovered. All the remainder of the creek is in Alaska and belongs to the United States. A bill has been introduced in congress for the appointment of commissioners to fix the boundary, but has not yet been acted upon.

No mystery about it. When the Shakers offered some time ago to give away a bottle of their Digestive Cordial to any one who might call at their New York office, there was a great rush and a great many people thought they were crazy.

Subsequently events proved it to have been a very clever advertising transaction, for although they gave thousands of bottles, it was in the end profitable; nearly every one that took a free bottle came back for more and paid for it with pleasure, saying they had derived better results from its use than from any other medicine they had ever used.

There is nothing so uniformly successful in the treatment of stomach troubles as the Shaken Digestive Cordial, and what is better than all, it relieves at once.

Laxol, the new form of Castor Oil, is so palatable that children lick the spoon clean.

William Hays, a religious fanatic of Crawfordsville, Ind., did not believe in musical instruments, but his wife and daughter did. The women, by selling chickens and butter, secretly saved money and bought a piano, placing it in their home while Hays was absent. On his return he was enraged and began smashing the piano, declaring it to be an instrument of the devil. His wife struck him with a poker, fracturing his skull. Hays' injury is serious.

Two wrecks occurred on the Southern Pacific tracks within 36 hours. The first was a collision between the narrow and broad-gauge trains at Santa Clara. No one was seriously hurt. The second was on the San Jose branch running out of San Francisco. An embankment was undermined by the heavy rains and when the train reached the place it was hurled into the hollow. Engineer Keyer was killed and Fireman Gill severely wounded. All the passengers escaped harm.

Wife—Here's an account of a man who shot himself rather than suffer indigestion. Husband—The fool! why didn't he take De Witt's Little Early Risers? I use to suffer as bad as he did before I commenced taking these little pills. Geo. H. Haskins, druggist.

Owing to the energetic efforts of Minister Terrell at Constantinople, Miss Clara Barton and party will be permitted by the Turkish government to distribute relief to the distressed Armenians, although the Red Cross society will not figure in the work. The news came to the state department in a cablegram from the minister in which he says that while Turkey refuses such permission to the Red Cross society it will recognize any persons the minister names and approves to distribute relief in the interior of Turkey, provided the Turkish authorities are kept informed of what they are doing.

Old People. Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1 a bottle at Chas. Strang's drug store.

Hiram Lester, supposed to have been the oldest man in the world, died recently in Henry county, Ga., in the poorhouse, aged 139 years. He was born in Raleigh, N. C., eight years before the birth of the republic. There is no question as to his great age, as he leaves a son, 92 years old, who is an inmate of the same institution, and a daughter, aged 83 years, who lives in Heard county. "Uncle Hiram," as he was familiarly called, came from a long-lived ancestry. His father lived to be 100 and his grandfather to be 110. The old man claimed to have enjoyed the hospitality of George Washington for three days and spoke fluently on the subject of the official acts of Jefferson, Madison and Jay. He claimed to have fought in the war of 1812, but he never drew a pension. He lost three sons in the civil war. In 1881 he was obliged to take refuge in the poorhouse. In 1891 he was married to Mary Moseley, aged 81, housekeeper of the poorhouse.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c per box. For sale by Chas. Strang.

Theodore Runyon, United States ambassador to Germany, died suddenly and unexpectedly at Berlin the other day of heart failure. He was born in Somerville, N. J., Oct. 25, 1823. Runyon graduated from Yale, practiced law and went to the civil war in command of a brigade. In 1868 President Cleveland appointed him ambassador to Germany. He was a man of unquestioned ability and high social attainments. During his service in Berlin the most important matter that has been pending between the United States and Germany had been that in regard to the removal of the restrictions imposed on the importations of American pork and beef products into that country. He moved with his family in the best society in New Jersey. Runyon had three daughters and two sons. His daughters were noted for their beauty.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. Geo. H. Haskins druggist.
