Opera Block,

Last Saturday was republican day in Jacksonville. There were 75 delegates to the county convention in the city and every delegate had with him from one to five friends, making in all a crowd equal to that which assembles

The convention was called to order W. I. Vawter, chairman of the county central committee, and the work of temporary organization was com-

W. I. Vawter was chosen temporary chairman and Gus Newbury temporary secretary.

There were no contesting delegates but there were several delegates present in addition to those at first allotted to the several precincts, and these, by motion of H. E. Ankeny were given seats in the convention. A committee of five, composed of C. B. Watson, Dr. Robinson, Dr. B. F. Adkins, A. A. Whiteman and Alex Orme, was appointed on order of business. The committee of five on credentials-E. V. Carter, Geo. Brown, Robt. Bond, Dr. Carter, Geo. Brown, Robt. Bond, Dr.
E. P. Geary and Peter Applegate.
Committee of three on resolutions were H. E. Ankeny, J. H. Huffer and J. M. Whipple.
Upon motion the convention adjourned to meet at 1:30 p. m. At 1:30 Chairman Vawter re-convened the convention and the report of the committee on order of business was read and adopted. In this re-port it was recommended that Hon. H. E. Ankeny act as permanent chair-

The acceptance of the report placed Mr. Ankeny in the chair. The next order of business was the election of two secretaries and Gus Newbury and H. C. Myer were the chosen two.

Big Butte precinct having no rep-resentative present Frank Wilmarth was named as a delegate for that pre-

We find Flounce Rock has elected two delegates—S S Aiken and C Nye. We find them only entitled under the apportionment to one delegate and we are unable to determine which one is entitled to the seat.

E. V. CARTER, Chairman.

E. V. CARTER, Chairman. Chauncey Nye, being the first delegate elected, was seated.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

"Your committee on resolutions would respectfully report as follows: No resolutions being offered we have nothing to report. H. E. Ankeny, Chairman.

Report adopted. Scott Griffin and G. M. Love were chosen tellers. The first order for nomination was that of seven delegates to the state and district conventions. Scott Griffin presented the name of L. F. Willits: J. W. Robinson thought J. C. Whipp ought to be one and so nominated; Geo Brown thought the same as to Robt. Bond; A. A. Whiteman named Peter Applegate; J. R. Norris was nomi-nated by J. P. Dodge; H. D. Kubli came to the fore with the name of Hon. Dr. E. P. Geary; G. T. Jones named G. F. Merriman and Robt. Taylor put

It was decided that the seven delegates receiving the highest number of beautiful wild flowers. votes be declared elected. The vote was as follows: Love 46: Willits 59; Bond 42; Whipp 40; Applegate 45; Nor-ris 51; Ankeny 69; Geary 68; Stewart 43; Merriman 34. Messrs. Ankeny, Geary, Norris, Willits, Applegate, Love and Stewart were declared elected.

Love wanted H. D. Kubli in the race again and so nominated, W. V. Jones named J. M. Whipple, of Woodville. Nominations closed. The ballot stood: Kubli 42; Von der Hellen 37; Langell 54; Whipple 24; Colton 63. Colton, Kubli and Laurie, Bert Smith, Ben Stoops, John Chambers, Eben Carver, and Mr. and Mrs. N. S. for county judge. A. F. Hunt, of Ashland, was nominated for sheriff by C. B. Watson, and G. W. Stephenson, also of Ashland, was named by S. M. Robinson, of Talent. The ballot gave Hunt 52 and Stephenson 25. Hunt declared the nominee.

The hottest contest of the day was for county clerk. Dr. E. P. Geary nominated M. L. Alford, of Medford, and E. C. Pomeroy, of Beagle, nomi-nated Max Muller. The vote gave Alford 40 and Muller 35. It was a neck and neck race until each had scored 33 votes. Here Alford forged ahead and took seven of the remaining vetes while Muller only took two of them. Alford declared the choice.

For recorder M. Hubbard nominated Prof. L. L. Freeman, of Gold Hill, and D. T. Lawton named Ora Kahler, of Phoenix. The vote gave Freeman 28: Kahler 47. Kahler nominated. Nine of the Medford delegates had pledged their support to Freeman and they stayed by him-but they were too few.
