

NEWS OF THE CITY.

—Prof. Alex. J. Meloy Tyndall, the celebrated hypnotist and clairvoyant, gave an exhibition of his wonderful powers in occultism and telepathy on the streets last Wednesday afternoon...

—Kame & Gilkey have recently put in a large stock of Yates & Co's celebrated "Best Paint"—for houses and barns—inside and outside.

—Last Tuesday was Odd Fellows' memorial day and Medford lodge No. 53 and Olive Rebekah lodge duly commemorated the day with appropriate exercises...

—All kinds of wood for sale. Long wood, short wood, hard wood, soft wood—and just plain wood. Bellinger & Hill, draymen.

—John Morris, the Yankee trader, turned himself loose on real estate transactions last week. His record for the work is here given: To Geo. E. Trask he traded a placer claim...

—Good wood, Wells & Shearer—we have it in all lengths and quality—except poor quality, which kind we don't keep.

—C. W. Palm, the real estate man, is doing a wholesale business these days as will be seen by the following list of sales made last week: To J. Myers, of Washington, he sold his 120 acre farm in Sams valley...

—Over at the residence of our good friend, A. S. Johnson, near Sterling, on Wednesday of this week, occurred one of the happiest events of that locality for many moons—the same being the marriage of Mr. William H. Maultby and Miss Sadie C. Johnson...

—The national Eclectic medical association will hold its 26th annual meeting at Portland on the 16th to 18th, inclusive, of the present month.

—It is a noticeable fact that every person who travels over the Northern Pacific railroad is more than pleased because of the quick time made, the splendid car accommodations and the very courteous treatment received at the hands of the company's employees.

—The citizens of Sams Valley, with their usual progressive spirit, have decided to celebrate the coming Fourth of July in a manner that will far surpass in splendor any previous event held in that part of the county.

—Mounce & Parker are now prepared to serve the public with all kinds of cooling drinks—and ice cream.

—N. R. Johnson has purchased a six-acre tract of land adjoining the Hutchison tract on the west from J. D. Carns, through C. W. Palm's real estate agency for the consideration of $600.

—A picnic party, consisting of Messrs. J. E. Hill and Wm. Nicholson and Misses Ellen Bursell, Adele Pickel, Minnie Coleman and Elva Galloway, went last Saturday to visit the Sterling mine and spend a day in rest and recreation.

—Mounce & Parker have a large stock of Fourth of July goods at the lowest prices. Call and see them.

—George Kurtz, the cigar manufacturer, this week purchased from C. W. Palm two lots in Cottage addition and will immediately commence the erection of a neat little dwelling thereon.

—Kame & Gilkey have tinware they guarantee not to rust.

—C. P. Buck, of this place, has traded to William S. Barbaum, also of Medford, for the defense. The jurors were Horace Pelton, J. N. Smith, Wm. Noah, Mr. Roe, E. R. Gall and Mr. Harold. Mr. Esteb states we were in error last week in stating that the directors were of the opinion that the punishment was justifiable.

—Don't fool away your money buying worthless remedies, which are warranted to cure every disease. Remember that De Witt's Sarsaparilla is a blood purifier and a blood maker.

—Last Monday morning an old gentleman by the name of Richardson was sand-bagged, near Gold Hill by two men and relieved of all his money, amounting to about $20, and his watch.

—Oregon Kidney Tea is pleasant to the taste and the most effective blood purifier known. Sold by Charles Strang, druggist.

—Merchant A. C. Taylor and family will leave for Europe on a business and pleasure trip in August, to be absent about three months.

—The Star restaurant, together with all fixtures, for sale. Apply to W. J. King.

—The rose time of Southern Oregon is just a little late this season but there is nothing wanting in quality and variety now that the roses are here.

—The trouble in the Gold Hill city council, occasioned by the dispute as to the chairman's right to vote except in cases of a tie, is growing and both sides have retained attorneys and will fight the case to the bitter end.

—My new millinery goods will be here this week—they are positively the latest styles. Mrs. L. J. Sears.

—The ice cream and strawberry festival, given by the graduating class of the Medford school at the opera house last Friday evening, was a success in every particular.

—Wood of all descriptions for sale. Bellinger & Hill.

—A picnic party, consisting of Messrs. J. E. Hill and Wm. Nicholson and Misses Ellen Bursell, Adele Pickel, Minnie Coleman and Elva Galloway, went last Saturday to visit the Sterling mine and spend a day in rest and recreation.

—Mounce & Parker are now prepared to serve the public with all kinds of cooling drinks—and ice cream.

—N. R. Johnson has purchased a six-acre tract of land adjoining the Hutchison tract on the west from J. D. Carns, through C. W. Palm's real estate agency for the consideration of $600.

—A fine line of men's and boys' sweaters, dirt cheap at the Fair.

—N. S. Bennett, of Eden precinct, lays claim to being the champion gooseberry grower in Jackson county and has produced evidence to back him up in his assertion.

—Mounce & Parker have a large stock of Fourth of July goods at the lowest prices. Call and see them.

—George Kurtz, the cigar manufacturer, this week purchased from C. W. Palm two lots in Cottage addition and will immediately commence the erection of a neat little dwelling thereon.

—Kame & Gilkey have tinware they guarantee not to rust.

—C. P. Buck, of this place, has traded to William S. Barbaum, also of Medford, for the defense. The jurors this city, 157 acres of land situated about two miles east of Medford for 161 acres situated about 100 miles east of Denver, Colorado. Mr. Buck will leave this fall with his family to take possession of his new home, and the good wishes of lots of friends will go with them.

—G. L. Davis is closing out his entire stock of boys' suits below cost. Now is your chance for bargains.

—Merchant Berlin relates that a brother of his came very near being in that serious street car accident at Victoria, which occurred recently and in which sixty odd lives were lost, by a bridge breaking down.

—Next Tuesday, June 16th, is the day set apart by the Knights of Pythias as one upon which each member of the order is asked to pay tribute to the departed dead. A committee has been appointed from Talsman lodge, of Medford, to visit the cemetery and decorate the graves of the deceased brothers, and upon the evening of the above date appropriate exercises will be held in their lodge hall.

—Why smoke a dried up cigar when you can get a fresh one, at the Cigar factory.

—G. W. Isaacs, proprietor of the Palace barber shop, is having a new bath room built which is to be something new in that line in Medford.

—The Star restaurant, together with all fixtures, for sale. Apply to W. J. King.

—The rose time of Southern Oregon is just a little late this season but there is nothing wanting in quality and variety now that the roses are here.

—The trouble in the Gold Hill city council, occasioned by the dispute as to the chairman's right to vote except in cases of a tie, is growing and both sides have retained attorneys and will fight the case to the bitter end.

—My new millinery goods will be here this week—they are positively the latest styles. Mrs. L. J. Sears.

—The ice cream and strawberry festival, given by the graduating class of the Medford school at the opera house last Friday evening, was a success in every particular.

—Wood of all descriptions for sale. Bellinger & Hill.

—A picnic party, consisting of Messrs. J. E. Hill and Wm. Nicholson and Misses Ellen Bursell, Adele Pickel, Minnie Coleman and Elva Galloway, went last Saturday to visit the Sterling mine and spend a day in rest and recreation.

—Mounce & Parker are now prepared to serve the public with all kinds of cooling drinks—and ice cream.

—N. R. Johnson has purchased a six-acre tract of land adjoining the Hutchison tract on the west from J. D. Carns, through C. W. Palm's real estate agency for the consideration of $600.

—A fine line of men's and boys' sweaters, dirt cheap at the Fair.

—N. S. Bennett, of Eden precinct, lays claim to being the champion gooseberry grower in Jackson county and has produced evidence to back him up in his assertion.

—Mounce & Parker have a large stock of Fourth of July goods at the lowest prices. Call and see them.

—George Kurtz, the cigar manufacturer, this week purchased from C. W. Palm two lots in Cottage addition and will immediately commence the erection of a neat little dwelling thereon.

—Kame & Gilkey have tinware they guarantee not to rust.

—C. P. Buck, of this place, has traded to William S. Barbaum, also of Medford, for the defense. The jurors make Medford his future home—and we are glad that things are thusly.

—Men's and boys' overalls at prices that would astonish you—the Fair.

—H. L. Raine, the confectioner and cigar dealer, is preparing to remove his stock of goods to the old Mitchell and Lewis stand, opposite the Union livery stable. G. P. Lindley will immediately commence the work of removing the old building preparatory to the erection of a fine two story brick thereon.

—Demorest, the dentist—opera block, Medford.

—W. T. Crane, proprietor of the Oriental livery stable, is doing a good business these days. Hardly a day passes without having out a part or all of his rigs. Billy has been very attentive to his business as well as courteous to his patrons and we are glad to see him succeed—he deserves it.

—Mrs. Anna Williams and Miss Katie Parker, of Gold Hill, have rented rooms in the Hamlin block and will furnish them in the most approved style and open up a dressmaking establishment therein in a short time.

—Pacific Queen sewing machine—a good article—for $28—at the Fair.

—The Medford ice works have already commenced to make carload shipments of ice and the prospects of a good summer's run are very flattering.

—Tier wood delivered for $1.25 per tier—Wells & Shearer.

—Contractor E. W. Starr will commence work next week on an 18x24 foot addition to F. W. Hutchison's residence, in West Medford.

—Dr. G. B. Cole desires us to state that the report which has gained circulation, to the effect that he would permanently locate in Gold Hill, is a mistake. He has decided to remain in Medford.

—Mounce & Parker are the leaders for soft drinks of all kinds.

—G. W. Isaacs, Jr., has purchased R. G. Bunch's interest in the Palace barber shop. Mr. Bunch will remain in the shop, however, as an employee.

—Sherm A. Orten has taken his old position as cook at Hotel Nash. Sherm is all right and there are few, if any, better cooks on the coast.

—G. R. Pelton has closed his meat market on C street, and is figuring on putting in a line of cigars and confectionery in the same building.

—A bicycle ordinance appears elsewhere in this issue.

—My brother was afflicted with pains in one of his limbs and he also had eczema and Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him." Anna B. Fry, Medford, Ore.

—Strayed from my place on Rogue river eight miles above the Bybee bridge, one old bay horse with slight saddle marks and one bay yearling filly, each having a strip in the face. Any one knowing of their whereabouts will be suitably rewarded by dropping me a line to Beagle, Oregon.

—Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the board of directors of school district No. 46 of Jackson county, Oregon, up to 4 o'clock p. m. June 20, 1896 for doing janitor work at the school house the coming year and during the whole year.

—Mr. Woods Quite Seriously Injured. Last Monday morning while A. E. Woods was helping to unload some lumber at his lumber yard, near the railroad track, the end of a large timber flew up striking him a terrible blow in the side, knocking him down and stunning him.

—Oregon Kidney tea relieves nervousness. Sold by Chas. Strang, druggist.

—Mounce & Parker have a large stock of Fourth of July goods at the lowest prices. Call and see them.

—Doctor Danielson, Office in Halley block over postoffice. Chronic diseases, and diseases of women and children a specialty.

He Never Cared to Wander From His Own Fireside,

But he did go to The "Racket" and purchase a ventilated straw hat, with the hope that if he would give his head plenty of fresh air the hair would consent to grow once more....

Bald Headed Men Take Notice...

We have the lightest, nicest, cheapest and all round finest line of straw hats to be found in Medford. Hats for everybody—little hats, big hats, low hats, tall hats, but no old hats.

THE "RACKET"

P. S.—Did you see that fine line of new laces?

CASH GROCERY

Headquarters for Teas and Coffees

A FEW RETAIL PRICES 16 Pounds Best Granulated Sugar, $1.00. Rolled Oats, 30 pounds for $1.00. Raisins, 20 pounds for $1.00.

Come in and Get Prices

Lumsden & Berlin Near Hotel MEDFORD, ORE.

Flower Mission Day in Medford.

No lovelier spectacle ever made glad the vision of a beauty-loving people than that which greeted the citizens of Medford and the traveling public at the depot last Tuesday. It was flower mission day and it was a triumph of beauty and a scene that must linger long in the memory of those who witnessed it.

—Mounce & Parker are the leaders for soft drinks of all kinds.

—G. W. Isaacs, Jr., has purchased R. G. Bunch's interest in the Palace barber shop. Mr. Bunch will remain in the shop, however, as an employee.

—Sherm A. Orten has taken his old position as cook at Hotel Nash. Sherm is all right and there are few, if any, better cooks on the coast.

—G. R. Pelton has closed his meat market on C street, and is figuring on putting in a line of cigars and confectionery in the same building.

—A bicycle ordinance appears elsewhere in this issue.

—My brother was afflicted with pains in one of his limbs and he also had eczema and Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him." Anna B. Fry, Medford, Ore.

—Strayed from my place on Rogue river eight miles above the Bybee bridge, one old bay horse with slight saddle marks and one bay yearling filly, each having a strip in the face. Any one knowing of their whereabouts will be suitably rewarded by dropping me a line to Beagle, Oregon.

—Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the board of directors of school district No. 46 of Jackson county, Oregon, up to 4 o'clock p. m. June 20, 1896 for doing janitor work at the school house the coming year and during the whole year.

—Mr. Woods Quite Seriously Injured. Last Monday morning while A. E. Woods was helping to unload some lumber at his lumber yard, near the railroad track, the end of a large timber flew up striking him a terrible blow in the side, knocking him down and stunning him.

—Oregon Kidney tea relieves nervousness. Sold by Chas. Strang, druggist.

—Mounce & Parker have a large stock of Fourth of July goods at the lowest prices. Call and see them.

—Doctor Danielson, Office in Halley block over postoffice. Chronic diseases, and diseases of women and children a specialty.

GROCERIES

Are an actual necessity in every household—in fact you can't get along without them. But when you invest your money in anything in the grocery line you should make sure that you get a pure, fresh article; and that is...

Just What I... Have for Sale

I pride myself upon keeping the choicest line of groceries in the valley, and my prices are all right. I also carry glassware, crockery, notions, confectionery, cigars and tobacco, and handle all the leading daily papers....

WOLTERS, THE... GROCER

Seventh Street - MEDFORD, ORE.